No Flat Statement American Troops Would Leave Japan

By HOWARD HANDLÉAN
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, Feb. 17.—Secretary of the Army Royall, in his now highly-publicized "off the record" news conference in Tokyo Feb. 6, declared he did not know what American troops could do in Japan if a full-scale world war should start.

He suggested it might be better to pull American troops out of Japan before war started, but emphasized that no decision had yet been made, adding:

"Any announcement of such a move would be premature. There may be an announcement in a month or two, but I don't know yet."

No Flat Statement

Royall did not make any flat statement that American troops would be withdrawn from Japan.

No notes were kept at the news conferences, but here is a close approximation of what Secretary Royall did say:

"I don't know what our troops could do in Japan in the event of war. I am not certain we could hold Japan, nor am I certain it would be worthwhile as long as we have Okinawa and the Philippines, which are relatively safer and from which we would be able to mount strategic air attacks without undertaking the task of feeding 80,000,000 civilians."

Gen. MacArthur Keeps Silence On Controversy

TOKYO, Feb. 17.—(INS)—General Douglas MacArthur was bombarded today with requests for a statement on the public controversy over United States military strategy in the Far East.

A source close to the general indicated, however, that MacArthur has no intention of issuing any comment.

An Australian Associated Press correspondent yesterday wrote that U. S. Army Secretary Royall said in Tokyo Feb. 6 that the United States will not defend Japan in case of war.

(Correspondent Denys Warner said Royall uttered this statement in an "off the record" session with newsmen at the American embassy.)

Warner's story followed reports from Tokyo last week stating that authoritative informants expressed the view that American forces might be withdrawn from Japan if war comes.

Secretary Royall denied in Washington yesterday that he was the source of such reports. Royall said:

"I made no statement about leaving Japan at any time. On the contrary I said specifically that we did not plan to make any changes."

Trieste Issue Is Raised Again In United Nations

By PIERRE J. HESS
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Feb. 17.

Russia is expected to condemn the United States and Britain in the United Nations today for proposing the return of the free territory of Trieste to Italy.

The Security Council meets at 3 p.m. on demand of Soviet Delegate Yakov A. Malik, who gave notice he will raise anew the question of a governor for Trieste.

In the forenoon, the 11-nation Convention Arms Commission probably will vote to refer to a working group the U. S. proposal that central machinery be set up for a future world arms census minus atom weapons.

Malik previously reserved the right to reintroduce his own plan which calls for similar machinery on world arms but insists that a report be made to U.N. by March 31, 1949 on all weapons and military forces—including atom bombs.

Malik can be expected to present his proposal either in the Arms Commission today or in the Atomic Energy Commission meeting tomorrow.

(Secretary Royall denied in Washington yesterday that he was the source of such reports. Royall said:

"I made no statement about leaving Japan at any time. On the contrary I said specifically that we did not plan to make any changes."

Flood Stage On Indiana Rivers

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 17.—(INS)—The White River at Petersburg, Ind., was reported rising at the rate of one-half inch an hour today as the fourth flood crest of the year moved down the White and Wabash rivers in Indiana.

Meanwhile, the Ohio river surged upward at Mount Vernon, Ind.

The Wabash river was expected to crest 10-feet above flood stage at Lafayette and eight feet above flood level at Covington. A steady rise was noted in the Wabash downstream from Lafayette.

Engineers said a crest of 39 to 40 feet was expected on the Ohio at Mount Vernon by Sunday or Monday. Such a crest would be four or five feet above flood stage.

Israel's First President Is Inaugurated

Dr. Chaim Weizmann Takes Office In Formal Ceremony Today

By BENN FELLER
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

JERUSALEM, Feb. 17.—Dr. Chaim Weizmann—the scientist-statesman who has championed the Zionist cause for half a century—was inaugurated as Israel's first president today.

The impressive Jerusalem ceremony followed an early morning secret ballot in which Israel's constituent assembly elected the 74-year-old Dr. Weizmann to the presidency by a vote of 83 to 15.

Crowds of cheering Israelis lined the Holy City's streets to pay tribute to the "grand old man of Zionism."

Takes Oath of Office

In the presence of the entire assembly, Dr. Weizmann took the solemn oath of office in Hebrew from Chief Justice Dr. Moshe Smolar.

The traditional sounding of the ceremonial ram's horn—tef shofar—followed the pronouncement of the words:

"Chaim Ben Ozer Weizmann, I declare you the people's choice."

Earlier, Dr. Weizmann and his wife were escorted from their home at Rehoboth to the Holy City by a special committee of 12 assembly members chosen to represent the 12 tribes of Israel.

On the outskirts of Jerusalem, Mayor Hanan Aufer presented the aged president with a golden key to the city.

Thousands Line Streets

Thousands of civil and military police lined the streets of Jerusalem's new city as an honor guard.

The solemnity and unity of spirit at the inauguration was in marked contrast to the early morning assembly at which Dr. Weizmann was elected.

Although Dr. Weizmann—who has been provisional president since last May—won easily over his only rival, Prof. Joseph Klausner, nominee of the Herut party of the extremist Irgun Zvai Leumi, the vote followed bitter debate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Senate law-labor writers battled today over scrapping or retaining the Taft-Hartley act barrier to unionization of foremen.

The issue was thrust before the Senate labor committee by Carl Brown, president of the Foremen's Association of America, and William T. Gossell, Ford Motor company vice president.

The Taft-Hartley law does not bar supervisors from joining a union but it frees employers from any legal duty to recognize and bargain with such unions.

Gossett said that Ford's five-year dealings with the foremen's association had convinced the firms that supervisors unions "tend to destroy effective management" and bar the recognition of merit and initiative in promoting personnel.

With six days of hearings left, Republican senators put themselves under rigid time limitations to en-

Food And Fuel Shortages Hit Blizzard Area

DENVER, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Food and fuel shortages hit sections of the blizzard-harassed states of Wyoming and Colorado today as winter continued its full-scale assault on the mountain regions.

Casper, Wyo., reported that meat, milk and coal supplies were scarce and army authorities said that South Woods Landing, Colo., was running dangerously low on fuel.

The seven weeks' death toll for the six-state region of Nebraska, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado, New Mexico and Montana rose to 66 with the recovery near St. George, Utah, of a sheepherder's ice-covered body.

Meanwhile, rescue crews moved in on wide fronts in Wyoming to bring aid to snowbound ranchers and to evacuate sick persons requiring hospitalization.

Pounding Winds

Pounding winds peeled off old snow and piled it into new drifts in Wyoming ahead of a cold wave slashing through from Montana and western Canada.

Winter's new assault threatened to strike still farther southeastward into Colorado, northern New Mexico, western Nebraska and northwestern Kansas by tonight and tomorrow.

Wyoming stockgrowers braced themselves for westerly "howlers" east of the mountains. Forecasters said the winds will shift to strongly northerly with plunging temperatures this spring.

Snow and much colder weather was promised for much of the Columbia river basin was about 200 per cent above normal at that time.

Last year parts of this region suffered heavy damage when a late spring followed by high temperatures caused the heavy snow pack to melt suddenly.

MUNICH, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Frontiseck Kleva, a Czechoslovak national and first defendant in the "super-secret" Munich Communist spy trial, was found guilty today and sentenced to 20 years at hard labor.

Kleva was convicted on all charges made against him. The exact nature of the charges was not disclosed and the evidence was kept secret.

Prior to the conviction, the unusual security news "blackout" on the trial was lifted in part, apparently as the result of an investigation ordered by U. S. Military Governor Gen. Lucius D. Clay.

This was reliably reported in administration quarters today as pressure increased in Congress for an estimate of "overall" foreign aid to accompany action on the European recovery bill.

The motion included a proviso, that Catholic and Jewish groups be notified of the board's intention to vote on the request.

According to the request, one hour's study each week in church property, nearest the schools, would be given.

It is not a compulsory move, it was explained, but the petitioners maintained that it is recognized all

The letter she presented follows:

We recommend an increase of $35 a month for all teachers, principals, vice-principals, supervisors, and the superintendent of schools. The state mandate would be included in this amount.

The New Castle branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association endorses the request for salary adjustments made at the last board meeting by Miss Helen Hawxell and recommends also that this action be retroactive to September 1.

In line with Gov. Duff's recommendations that more financial responsibility be assumed by local districts, our association urges the New Castle Board of Education to raise the maximum levels as follows:

College degrees, $3,800.

Large Crowd Out For Dollar Day

Bright and early this morning, with a good measure of splendid weather from ol' weather man himself, Dollar Day arrived in New Castle, attracting one of the largest shopping crowds to date.

And of course there were 52 local merchants who made possible your participation in this first Dollar Day of the year.

Doors were open at 9:30 a.m. prompt. There was no lagging, whatsoever. In fact the little housewife didn't realize she could move so fast, until she saw the many excellent bargains on the counters. Long before opening time, crowds had assembled and were patiently waiting.

"Now that people are talking about antiques, especially sewing machines, I have one that I am using now to do my sewing. My mother got it, the year the First Baptist church was dedicated in 1890. It is still in good shape, after all these years of use." Sarah Jones, County Line street.

Europe had been conquered. Even those who feel we could win after that believe it would take 15 to 30 years.

"If we hold western Europe, we would be able to mount strategic air attacks from Italy, Greece and southern France."

Royal went on to say that if Russia were the enemy in such a war, American air strength could be brought to bear from western Europe against the main bulk of Soviet industry. On the other hand, he said, air attacks from Japan could reach only a small part of Soviet industrial strength.

Could Protect Itself
The army secretary said that America's naval strength is so much greater than anything the Russians could have for at least 25 years that the U. S. could protect itself in the Pacific even if America's northern land bases were lost.

With regard to China, Royal said:

"I am not worried about China as I don't believe Russia will be able to make effective use of Communist China and may have trouble.

As he approached the laboratory, he was shot from ambush, presumably by one of the escapees. Morris, taken to the Post hospital, said he did not see his assailant.

Nelson and Nye, both convicted of offenses overseas, were being held as witnesses in the court martial of Lt. Col. George Pinard, accused of brutality to GI prisoners at the army rehabilitation center in Wurzburg, Germany.

SCHOOL BOARD PLANS ACTION

over the world that what is needed, is spiritual values.

Banquet Funds

One hundred dollars was voted to each of the Junior high schools football and basketball teams for a banquet.

The directors voted unanimously for a negro girl to become a practice teacher at Senior high school.

Elmer Tinsman of the Pennsylvania Power company spoke on lighting. He told the directors entrance lines and switches, at all schools, except George Washington, were overloaded. He said that were a change planned he would be glad to have the company's engineers make recommendations, free.

He also said he would have a lighting expert point out the needs. The board accepted the latter suggestion. The meeting with him will be held next month.

To Use Auditorium

Use of Ben Franklin school auditorium was granted for the staging of an entertainment March 30 to raise funds for Polish orphans. The usual fee will be charged, it was stated. Director Hyde made the motion.

The board granted exemption of taxes for 1949, on 29 lots formerly owned by the Day Realty company near Jameson Memorial hospital, and which has been given by the city, by deed, to the hospital, which will use the land for the benefit of the hospital association.

No Action Taken

The board did not take any action on recommendations taken recently by the local branch of the State Educational association. However, publication of honor rolls was informally discussed. This move was not adopted because of opposition by the heads of junior high schools, Senior high school and the superintendent.

Relative to the recent meeting, Dr. Wilbur Flannery said it was time the board took action to let the public know. New Castle has a school system comparable to others in the district.

Complaints of Price

Dr. W. Fulton Jackson complained that "hot dogs" at Ben Franklin cost 15 cents and only 12 at Senior high and George Washington schools, which had a tendency to have students buy plate lunches. Dr. A. L. Hoffmaster said the plate lunches were good and worth the money.

Federal food subsidies were discussed, and it was decided finally to continue accepting the subsidies, but that supplies should be purchased through the school's business office.

Elect Teachers

Teachers elected to temporary positions were: Mrs. Hilda Black, Winifred Shaffer, Nancy E. Ruth, Russell L. Horchler, John W. Schmid and Mrs. Marguerite Fiscus.

The election was unanimous in all elections, except that of Mrs. Black, Director Alfred M. Hyde, opposing her. He said he was opposed to hiring married women as teachers, after which Dr. Flannery pointed out Mrs. Black is a widow.

Mrs. Fiscus will teach an orthopedic class, it having been pointed out by Professor Burton she does an excellent job, and it is difficult to procure a teacher of that type.

Games Approved

Contracts for football games with Har-Brack and Erie Tech, two new schools, were approved.

The directorate decided to purchase from the International Business Machine company a master clock for senior high school at a price of $358.

The board decided to purchase 16 tickets for the annual WPIAL banquet in Pittsburgh.

It was decided to pay the expenses of the gymnasium team to attend a meeting March 19 in McKeepsport.

The board decided upon an intramural basketball tourney, as recommended, and placed the salary of the supervisor at $1 an hour.

The city-county basketball tournament will be permitted at George Washington school gym in late February and early March, it was decided.

Some Proposals

Dr. W. Fulton Jackson suggested that because of reported interference with the practice of the high school basketball team that the recreation program at George Washington junior high be eliminated next year. No action was taken.

Six of the old floodlights which were in use at Taggart stadium will be erected at the YMCA training camp. It was pointed out that some night practice could be held to the heat of day time.

Dr. Jackson advocated emblems for junior varsity football players. The move was adopted upon motion of Director Woolcock.

Dr. Jackson also stated that it is hoped by the athletic committee to have Captain Tom Hamilton, former Navy coach, now Pitt athletic director, as the principal speaker at the high school athletic banquet.

Sprains Ankle

Mrs. Suzanne Todd, of 310 N. Mercer street, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 9:30 o'clock, Wednesday evening, for a sprained left ankle, received when she fell on the steps at her home.

Lange Departs From London

LONDON, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard Lange expressed satisfaction today over the outcome of his two-day London conference on Norway's relation to the north Atlantic alliance.

Lange, who has conferred with Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin on Norway's status, departed aerially for Oslo on Wednesday. Before leaving, he said: "Our two countries understand each other very well now."

Books Forum Lists Schedule

Of Human Bondage Discussion Proves Interesting; Mrs. J. A. Polena Is Leader

Somerset Maugham's novel of Human Bondage was given a thorough going over at the Great Books Forum on Tuesday evening at the public library.

Mrs. James A. Polena conducted the discussion in an able manner and Maugham's hero's status, according to the forum members, rates all the way from "spoiled child" to "believing apostate". The attendance was excellent and the participation almost complete.

The next three meetings are scheduled as follows:

March 1—Peloponnesian War. Leader, Robert Lesnick.

March 15—St. Augustine's Confessions. Leader, Herman Green. April 5—Plutarch's Lives, including Lycurgus, Numa, Alexander and Caesar.

No leader has as yet been chosen for the meeting of April 5.

The meetings are held at the public library on the first and third Tuesdays of the month at 7:30 p. m. and are open to everyone.

Adopt Modified Version

Congress would not wait for the commission's recommendations to repeal the T-H act and adopt a modified version of the old Wagner law authorizing the closed shop and without the right to enjoin strikes in the courts. Leaders of organized labor would feel that they were under close public scrutiny during this period and they would be unlikely to take advantage of the repeal of Taft-Hartley controls.

Senator Ives of New York and Senator Morse of Oregon, who are seeking a middle-ground solution, could profitably consider another constructive suggestion. Unions and employers would be required to give 60 days' notice of the termination of labor agreements to the Federal Conciliation Service. The law would provide for emergency mediation boards to act before the end of the agreement and not after it had ended and a strike was imminent.

The final outcome can be a dogfight with everyone disgruntled and unhappy except, perhaps, a few Republicans who might think that this was the way to discredit the Democrats. Or a constructive and reasonable law can be adopted by the Congress. One way to get a workable law is to put a commission to work to assemble knowledge and brains. Such a cooling-off period may be necessary for Congress in the deepest controversies are to be resolved satisfactorily.

Estimate Strike In Philadelphia Has Cost $60,000,000

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Experts estimated today that the week-long transit strike has already cost Philadelphia businessmen and wage earners more than $60,000,000.

Greatest losses were felt by retail stores, but restaurants and nightclubs also reported being hard hit. The strike-bound Philadelphia Transportation Co. itself was said to be losing $75,000 daily.

Striking employees of the transit lines will be paid today and tomorrow for services prior to the work stoppage last Friday. They normally earn approximately $85,000 a day.

The average Philadelphian appears to be coming into town these days only for work or essential medical services.

Sgt. Paul A. Rittleman Of Pennsylvania State Police Is Speaker Wednesday

New Castle Kiwanis Club members heard Sgt. Paul A. Rittleman, of Troop D, Pennsylvania State Police, speak on crime and its prevention at the weekly luncheon meeting, in The Castleton, Wednesday noon.

Sgt. Rittleman told how Butler is meeting the problem of crime prevention by the establishment of a Youth Guidance Clinic, where problem youths are brought before the clinic for a discussion of their problems.

Delinquency, he stated, is unguided or misguided activity of youth, and if these children can be turned to the right kind of thinking and activity, much crime can be averted. The clinic has not solved the problem entirely, he stated, as recently one of the youths who attended this clinic was found to be a member of a gang which had committed numerous robberies.

Wants Recognition

Youth, he stated, wants recognition, and if he cannot attain it through normal means, he will turn to vandalism and other means of expression to win the attention of other youths.

He felt that the problem of juvenile delinquency was a community problem. When epidemics of disease break out, the whole country turns to combatting it, but delinquency is more or less taken for granted, he stated.

The saving of only one boy a year, would be well worth the effort expended, he stated.

He stated that the men of Troop D would be willing to help out with this problem in any community.

Sgt. Rittleman was introduced by Sheriff Frank L. Coen, who spoke briefly of the problems facing law enforcement officers in the performance of their duties.

Rep. Nixon (R) Calif., announced today that he will insist on a public hearing by the house un-American activities committee to air the charges against Dr. Edward U. Condon.

His daughter, Mary Louise Perry, died here 25 years ago; and a sister, Mrs. Olive Bell Johnston, died December 22, 1946.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Louise Thomas Perry, a former resident of this city; a daughter, Mrs. Marilyn Mysner, and a sister, Mrs. Mae Williams, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Funeral services will be conducted on Friday in Pittsburgh, California.

New Castle High Announces 1949 Football Schedule Today

Eight Home Games, Two Away Approved

Robert M. Mills, faculty manager of athletics at New Castle High school today announced the completion of the 1949 football schedule for the "Red Hurricanes" the defending champions of the Class AA WPIAL.

The schedule one of the most attractive in years, calls for eight home games and two away. The New Castle team will play five Class AA conference games—Sharon, Farrell, Aliquippa, Washington and Hat-Brack. All games on the 1949 card are night games.

Final Approval Given

Final approval of the schedule was given by the New Castle School Board at its meeting last evening.

There are four teams on the card that were not on the 1948 schedule, Erie Tech, Carrick, Erie Academy and John Adams of Cleveland.

Missing from the 1948 schedule are Youngstown East, Mt. Lebanon, Butler and Erie East.

The football fans can look forward to many fine games at the newly enlarged stadium next fall. Already fans are talking football.

Expect Record Sale

No doubt there will be a heavy season ticket sale again this year. The season ticket sales last year set a new local all-time high. The new fine steel bleachers are an incentive for fans to buy tickets. There are seats for close to 14,000 at the stadium at the present time.

The latter part of August Phil Bridenbaugh will take his boys to the Y camp for conditioning. The first game is Friday night, September 9, bringing Erie Tech here.

Two Away Games

For Local 3125

Two away games have been scheduled this week by C.I.O. Local 3125.

The Pottery passers meet at the Y at 7 o'clock this evening for a trip to Manaca. The Legionnaires of that town are reputed to be loaded with college and high school stars. They should prove to be stiff competition for Nickie Ross cagers.

On Sunday, Local 3125 travels to Ford City for a game with the Ford City V.F.W. Department time for that contest is 12 noon.

Has Guest Night

Farm Frolic' Is Theme Of Gay, Colorful Dinner-Party Of
Lawrence Co. Group

Guest night at the Lawrence County Dental society was thoroughly enjoyed Tuesday evening in the form of a "farm frolic" held in the East New Castle grange. Wives of the members and other guests were invited.

At 6:30 o'clock the group was served a full course steak dinner with all the trimmings. The valentine motif predominated, and miniature egg baskets marked each place. The ladies' baskets contained a linen handkerchief, a remembrance of the occasion.

Afterwards an entertaining program was presented by De Luce Cole. Games and other types of diversions were featured with Dr. T. J. McFate Sr. in charge. Refreshments were also served later.

Dr. R. H. Gilmore and Dr. T. J. McFate Jr. were in charge of making arrangements for the "farm frolic."

Unemployment
Is Huge Problem
In Europe Area

President Truman Says Two
And Half Million Must Emigrate To Get Jobs

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(INS)—President Truman declared recently that approximately two and a half million workers will have to leave Europe, if they are to find jobs.

The president said that unemployment in Europe is such a problem that the emigration of workers from the continent to overseas areas would be an "essential solution."

He urged the various governments concerned to take effective steps toward this end in an effort to reduce Europe's labor surplus.

Unemployment Bad

In a report to Congress on the operations of the Economic Cooperation administration, Mr. Truman said unemployment is particularly bad in Italy and Greece and added that western Germany and Belgium also have the same trouble. The president declared:

"A recent survey conducted among European governments indicates that the total number of European workers available for emigration exceeds 2,500,000."

"Only a small portion of this group can be absorbed within continental Europe, making large overseas emigration an essential solution to the problem."

At the same time, the chief executive said this country's aid program to China has made a "vital contribution" in several sectors of the Chinese economy. But, he said, the 275 million dollars "is not of sufficient magnitude to stem the tide of economic deterioration."

The president said that American aid to China must never be a substitute, but rather be a supplement "to efforts by the Chinese government to increase production and improve the supply situation."

He frankly admitted that the Chinese Civil War had "sapped the country's strength and hampered efforts to restore essential services, increase production and revive China's export trade."

Europe Makes Progress

Mr. Truman reported that generally during the first six months of ECA operation Europe has made industrial and agricultural progress while inflation, still a handicap, has subsided somewhat in all countries except France, Italy and Greece.

The president also said that "the Communist propaganda drive is powerful, constant, and well-backed with talent and money." But he added that "there are signs that the anti-recovery efforts of the Communists, including their propaganda campaign, have not come up to their expectations."

In discussing Europe's labor problems, Mr. Truman said that 10 per cent of the Italian labor force or two million persons and one-third of the population of Greece is unemployed. He declared:

"In order to achieve greater productivity, it is necessary not only to make available tools and materials for production, but also to employ the total labor force more fully and productively."

"There is need for a re-direction of workers to more essential industries in most of the countries. In some, the nation's own labor supply needs to be supplemented by foreign workers."

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

THERE COMES TODAY a letter from Ira Hartizer, Volant, R.D. 3, concerning deer. It is self-explanatory and follows:

Volant, Pa., R. D. 3
Feb. 14, 1949

Here & There in Sports Land.

I have followed with interest the discussion in your column regarding the proposed antlerless deer season for 1949, and I believe all sportsmen appreciate the opportunity to express their opinion regarding this matter.

It is a known fact that more deer were killed in Lawrence county last year than ever before, and there is only one reason for this, namely that the mountain or forest districts are over-browsed, and the deer herd is scattering over the farming sections simply because there is little food for them elsewhere.

The average deer hunter is rather well pleased about the possibility of hunting right here in Lawrence county, but the majority of the farmers take a different attitude. Deer can play havoc with a field of wheat, buckwheat or corn.

Another thing we should consider is the matter of safety. We have been very fortunate in not having any stray bullet accidents in this comparatively level district. If we should have in the future, we will probably be limited, as the State of Ohio was last year to using shotguns and buckshot.

We of this Commonwealth are fortunate in having a Game Commission, men who are level headed and have had enough practical experience in Game Conservation to know what is best for the entire state. Another thing we should appreciate is our splendid training school for field officers, ranking as one of the best in the nation.

We also do not know what deep snow could do during the remainder of February and the month of March, so, probably it is a little early to decide whether or not an antlerless deer season is necessary or practical. However the fact remains, the deer herd must be kept under control.

The one matter which sportsmen should be concerned about is the increasing number of game law violations. Why a so-called deer hunter would deliberately kill an illegal deer (4,500, last year), is hard to understand.

Let's observe our Game Laws at all times and co-operate with our Game Commission and field officers and we will have better hunting all around.

Very sincerely yours

(Signed) IRA HARTZLER.

Johnny Brincko said yesterday he is highly pleased with the bowing of the Brincko's, now rolling in the ABC at Atlantic City. . . . Seth Myers, secretary, northwest division, State Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, writes aent the deer population: "Whether we like it, is not the question; the herd he brought under control. At present there are too many of these big game animals in sections such as Mercer county." He adds that on one night in Mercer county, five deer on five different roads within a radius of five miles were killed." . . . According to Herman Steinbrink, president of the LCSA, the association here was against any increase, favored by the State Federation of Sportsmen, in hunting fees. If the legislature passes their action, license will cost $3.65. It is now $2.

Bud Elliott, former Sharon high and Grove City college basketball star, was honored by Bay Shore, L. I. fans when his high school team won its two hundredth victory. . . . Joltin' Joe DiMaggio, $80,000 baseball star, was a newsboy in his youth. His average day's pay then was $1.50. . . . Commissioner Charlie French, State Fish Commission, told the State Federation of Sportsmen, 2,000,000 legal-sized trout were stocked in Pennsylvania last year. . . . Harry Shoff, the painter, can reel off tales of yesterday's important fistcuffs. The Veteran Boxer, Philadelphia 'mag' will carry two tales by Here & There in April. One "Jimmy Dime's Brigade" and the other "Pennsylvania's Last Barn Fight" (1908). . . . State-wide examinations will be held at Harrisburg, February 24, for applicants seeking registration as baseball officials of the PJAA.

City's pugilism is in need of a shot in the arm. At present, there is only one fighter who commands outside notice. He is Frankie Moran, the welterweight. Elkins Brothers has gone to Washington, D. C., and is considered a resident of the national capital. Ellwood City has a good prospect in Billy Pozza, the heavyweight. The situation is quite different to that several decades ago when the city received exploitation through the gloved-fists of Tony Ross, Jimmy Dunn, Patsy Branigan, Tom McMahon, George Chip, and others. Were a capable instructor to start a stable here the situation might be reversed within a few years. . . . Clyde Burkholder, local hunter, believes too much wild game is killed by fox and states more than $4 should be paid as bounty on Sir Reynard. . . . Cambridge Springs Goodfellows club has started a campaign to raise funds to buy, and stock walleyes, and possibly other species of fish in French creek.

Foreign Stars May Grab Track Records

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(INS)—American indoor track experts virtually conceded today that three of their most prized championships seem destined for overseas delivery without benefit of the Marshall plan.

Never before has more than one title left the country in the same year. But European aces apparently have the one-mile, three-mile and 1,000-yard championships all but nailed down in Saturday's upcoming National A. A. U. meet.

The superiority of foreign distance stars was emphasized last weekend as they ran 1-2-3 in the mile and 1-2 in the two-mile events in the New York A. C. games.

Not even two world records—by George Guida of Villanova in the Buermeyer 500-yard run and Henry Laskau of the Maccabi A. C. in the mile walk—could steal the spotlight.

A slim crowd of less than 10,000—smallest in recent New York indoor track history—watched

Holland's Willy Slykhuis take the mile with Marcel Hansenne of France and Ingvar Bengtsson of Sweden close behind him. Slykhuis' time was 4:09.2, best of the season.

Then Gaston Reiff, the balding Belgian, took the Toussaint two-mile in 8:53.8, best clocking since the days of Greg Rice. Following him was Sweden's Erik Ahlden.

Gehrmann Out

The U. S. is all the more vulnerable in the A. A. U. championships because Don Gehrmann of Wisconsin will not compete. Don is the only American to interrupt the parade of foreign successes.

Saturday, Reiff and Ahlden will compete in the three-mile event, equivalent to the 5,000 meter distance at which the Belgian is Olympic champion. Bengtsson and Hansenne will race at 1,000 yards and Slykhuis will dominate the mile.

On the brighter domestic note, Guida will be entered in the 600-yard run, where he'll be favored after his 56.9 second record performance last week over 500 yards.

Harrison Dillard, who didn't compete in the New York A. C. games, will defend his hurdles championship against Penn State's Jim Gehrdes and others. Gehrdes took charge of the 60-yard barriers in 7.2 seconds last week.

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 17.—(INS)—The fate of the world bobsled championships, plagued by rain and warm weather at Lake Placid, was to be determined today. H. L. He said, however, that a good cold snap will be necessary to put the Mt. Hoevenburg run in shape.

Reds Clinch Eastern Title

(By International News Service)

The National Hockey League's two leading clubs, Detroit and Boston, were thankful today that not every night is like last night.

In New York, the last place

Rangers shut out the high-flying

Red Wings, 4 to 0, with goals

Chuck Raynor blocking 42 shots to gain his seventh shutout.

A tight game at Chicago suddenly exploded in the startled faces of the Bruins when the hometown Blackhawks scored four times in the third period. The final score was 5 to 1.

Reds Clinch Title

The Rhode Island Reds clinched the American Hockey League's eastern division crown by defeating the Philadelphia Rockets were beaten the second-place Hershey Bears, 8-5.

The Indianapolis Capitals wedged their hold on first place in the western division by beating second-place Cleveland, 6-3.

In other tilts, the Buffalo Bison beat the St. Louis Flyers, 6-2, and the Springfield Indians tied the New Kensington, Pa.

MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

Lawrence County Council of Sportsmen will be guests of Mahoning Sportsmen at Hillsboro high school Friday night.

SPORTS EDITOR IS ALSO STAR ATHLETE

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Feb. 17.—(INS)—Geneva college students never feel they are getting second hand information from the sport pages of The Cabinet, the school paper.

The Indianapolis Capitals wedged their hold on first place in the western division by beating second-place Cleveland, 6-3.

In addition to serving as sports editor of the paper, Warren Weakland is a star forward on the basketball squad and a steady pitcher with the baseball team. He is from New Kensington, Pa.

Horace Ashenfelter, Penn State distance ace, is on the mend but he's not yet certain that he'll be ready to defend his IC-4A two-mile title in February. The Collegeville youth broke a small bone in his foot two months ago.

SHORT SPORTS

The Yankees made a great run for the pennant last season, after winning the world title the previous year, but they fell short when the Indians and Red Sox finished in a deadlock. It wouldn't be surprising if the Indians won it almost as well as they please this time.

A year ago, Veeck attempted to trade Boudreau to the St. Louis Browns but decided against it after being deluged with protests from Cleveland fans.

You may have noticed that the front offices of the New York Giants have been strangely silent this winter on the team's prospects.

TAYLOR DECISIONS

YOUNG AL HERSCHE

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Chuck Taylor, veteran Coalport, Pa., welterweight, considered today that he had evened a boxing score.

Taylor gained a 10-round decision last night over young Al Hersch of New York, who held him to draw a month ago in Miami.

Taylor was outweighed by Hersch, 145½ to 147.

Assuming the story to be true, the "McCoy", the Deltwits and Col. Schoenberg have bought a controlling interest in the St. Louis Browns, in the improved and modernized Sportsman's park, and in the San Antonio ball club with its fine new park.

County Commissioners Fix Millage For Coming Year After Deliberation

COURT ROOM IS RENOVATED

After careful deliberation, the board of county commissioners at their meeting Tuesday completed the work of arranging the budget for the coming year and then set the millage.

The budget for general affairs as prepared by the county controller's office and reviewed by the commissioner's item for item, was fixed at $544,380. The cost of institutional care was placed at $150,000. This resulted in the millage being fixed at seven mills, of which 5½ will go for general purposes and 1½ for institutional care.

Last year the budget was estimated at $537,190.19, of which $490,239.81 was spent, leaving a balance of $170,985.59. It is necessary to carry this sum on the balance side at the end of the year as the taxes don't come due until next summer and enough must be carried along to run the affairs of the county until taxes become due and payable.

Objections to increasing the budget and raising the taxes was made by Mr. Travers on the grounds that it wasn't necessary, and he voted against the proposal.

However, among the items which are being anticipated are the painting of the court house, which according to a painting contractor would cost around $18,000. Next year the court house will be 100 years old. If some observance of the fact is made it might be necessary to have the old building look spruced and trim for the occasion. So this event has been provided for.

Hospital care of indigent persons has grown more costly, along with all other things, which Commissioners Bush and Gilmore pointed out, is costing the county more money. Last year's hospital bill amounted to around $30,000, they state.

At one time the commissioners had a reserve fund of around $400,000 on hand, which has gradually been depleted until at the first of the year it only amounted to $170,000. This, Commissioners Bush and Gilmore contend, is absolutely necessary to run the business of the county until the new taxes come in next year and that if a couple of long-drawn out murder cases should develop, jumping court costs, there would be no money on hand to pay for them.

RENOVATE COURT ROOM

Work of renovating Court Room One is being completed and in a few days the old place will look a lot more cheerful. New paper of a light color has been applied and the places where the plaster fell off has been repaired. The woodwork is also being painted and by next week this job will be completed.

More sunspots were seen on the face of the sun during May, 1947, than in any other month for more than 100 years.

Judge John G. Lamoree handed down a decision which may be far reaching.

This was a case where appeal was taken from the decision of Alderman James C. Brice fining Mr. Owen, an itinerant photographer under the provision of City Ordinance No. 4313, adopted in 1937 and amended by Ordinance No. 4930 in 1947, regulating the licensing of transients and providing for the regulating of the manner in which they may do business here, furnishing of bond, furnishing finger prints, etc.

Mr. Owen, a photographer residing in the State of Ohio, it appears, came here with a pony, camera and films and proceeded to take pictures of children astride the aforementioned pony on July 20, 1948. No funds were solicited and no money passed hands. The person whose picture was taken was given a card, stating that the photograph was taken by the Linwood Studios, 7516 Linwood avenue, Cleveland, O., and stating that he would call in a few days with proofs. In the event the subject desired to purchase finished pictures, an order would be taken. This it seems was done and the purchasers made a small deposit to cover the cost of development, the balance for the pictures was to be paid for on delivery.

Mr. Owen did not register, nor have his finger prints taken, nor did he post bond in the sum required by the ordinance. He was arrested and fined.

The defendant contended that the law was discriminatory and contrary to the constitution of the United States as well as the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He was also arrested for the same offense in Erie for a violation of an Erie ordinance similar to the New Castle ordinance, the chief difference being that the Erie ordinance imposed a license tax on.

In the opinion handed down by Judge Lamoree, the judge stated that the defendant is within the provisions of the Federal constitution and that the city ordinance cannot be invoked against him.

The judgement, the court continued, is therefore reversed, the defendant is found not guilty and the fine and cost, if paid, are directed to be refunded to the defendant, the costs to be placed on the City of New Castle.

Consider Making Demand For Recall Of Hungarian Envoy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(INS) Secretary of State Acheson indicated that the United States is considering asking the recall of Hungarian Minister Andrew SIK in retaliation for Budapest's ouster of U.S. Minister Selden Chapin.

Acheson was asked at news conference if any action regarding Sik is being contemplated. He replied:

The State Department has given a great deal of thought to the situation created by the fact that Chapin's withdrawal had been asked.

But he emphasized that no decision has yet been made.

Hypochondriac was a word used originally by the inventors of de-gas tions of the abdominal re-

Slayer Commits Suicide In Jail At St. Clairsville

Harry Vaughn Jr., 26, hangs himself after visit from wife and prosecutor

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., Feb. 17.—(INS)—Police reported today that Harry Vaughn, Jr., 26-year-old railroad worker, hanged himself in the Belmont county jail where he was being held on a murder charge in connection with the slaying of his sister-in-law.

The body was found Wednesday just after Vaughn had been visited by an assistant prosecutor and his wife, Deloris, 22.

Vaughn was charged with stealing a taxi cab near Wheeling, W. Va., last Tuesday and driving to Bellaire, O., where he shot and killed his wife's sister, Miss Violet Ruckman, 22, and seriously wounded his mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank Ruckman.

He reportedly told his wife when she visited him yesterday that "those bullets were meant for you."

Officials said, however, that he had claimed he loved his wife and was sorry for shooting his sister-in-law.

Sears, Roebuck Employees Share In 1948 Profits

Sixty-Seven Employees Of New Castle Store Receive Statement Of Their Percentage

Sixty-seven employees of the Sears, Roebuck & Co. store in New Castle today received first hand evidence that their company had enjoyed another successful year in 1948.

The evidence came in the form of individual statements which showed the extent to which each of these 67 men and women had shared in the company's 1948 profits by way of their membership in "The Savings and Profit Sharing Pension Fund of Sears, Roebuck and Co. Employees."

Investment Worth $90,054

After distributing the statements C. M. Bashev, manager of the store, disclosed that this local employee group have to their credit in the fund an aggregate of 1,822,604 shares of Sears stock plus a cash balance of $20,795.37. Based on a January 31st market value of $38 per share for Sears stock, this group has an investment worth, in the aggregate, $90,054.32.

Mrs. Bashev explained that employee members of the fund deposit five per cent of their salaries into their individual accounts each year, with the maximum deposit limited to $250 annually. Sears each year places in the fund an established percentage of its profits. This sum is credited to the employee members on a length-of-service basis. For example, at the close of 1948, those employees with less than five years service with Sears had credited to their accounts $1.15 for every dollar they themselves contributed. Employees who have been with the company from five to ten years were credited with $2.30 for every dollar saved. For those with over ten years service, the company placed $3.45 into the fund for every dollar put in by the member.

The fourth participating group—employees over fifty years of age with over fifteen years service—were credited $4.60 from the company for every dollar deposited.

The fund now owns 19 per cent of Sears stock and this ownership makes it the company's largest single stockholder, Mr. Bashev said.

The fund's current assets now amount to $216,500.00 (based on a January 31st value of $38 a share). However, the actual money deposited by the present employee membership in order to amass this value has been only $39,500.00.

The doctor reflected momentarily and said, "That is mighty kind of you, sub, and I deeply appreciate yo' delicate sentiments. Meanwhile, would yo' jus' let me have that prescription again fo' a moment? There is a slight alteration I want to make in it."

"I had arthritis and rheumatism so bad I could hardly get around. In fact, I went to several doctors who told me that my case was hopeless and that they could do nothing for me. Well, I had about given up hope when I met a friend who had just come back from taking IMDRIN. I really think it's a wonder. I feel better with every dose I take. It seems like a dream to be free of so much pain!"

MRS. A. R. WEBB

"I am not getting paid for these words, but I want everyone to know what I know about IMDRIN. I had rheumatism and arthritis in my left shoulder and arm for many months and nothing would help until I took IMDRIN. I really think it's a wonder. I feel better with every dose I take. It seems like a dream to be free of so much pain!"

A. C. STOCKTON

WHERE RHEUMATISM STRIKES ... AND HOW TO DETECT IT!

Rheumatic and arthritic pain and inflammation can strike the joints in any of the indicated affected areas. (See arrows in chart above.) But these diseases have many forms and each form has varying symptoms. Rheumatoid arthritis is an infection of the joints which fill with fluid; the skin around them may be red, the joints themselves swollen and painful. Still another form is specific infectious arthritis.

All these various forms of arthritis and rheumatism are accompanied by pain; very often swelling and loss of function of the joints. Hospital and clinical test patients undergoing IMDRIN therapy, some of whom had suffered hopelessly for as long as twenty years, were able to resume more happy, active living once the pain subsided and their confidence grew. In cases where the joints were swollen, IMDRIN, working internally, reduced swelling and eased pain rapidly. These patients, many of whom had given up hope, were able to once again resume comfortable living. It is true that response to IMDRIN varied occasionally and your own experience may or may not coincide with that of patients tested. But IMDRIN today is your greatest hope. IMDRIN, with the new wonder-working ingredient, may give you the same blessed successful results. Get IMDRIN today!

Women Enjoy Metal Workers Class At City School Shops

Ladies armed with ballpein hammers, etching tools and sharp files apparently do not appeal to men interested in taking the mental working course offered by the school system's adult education program.

Soon after the women started signing to take the course on Thursday evenings at the Lutton street shops the men lost interest and now instructor Ralph Humphrey faces a three-hour weekly session with a group of 15—composed exclusively of women.

When the course started early in the fall each lady made a hammered metal bracelet as her first project. None of the students had had any formal training in metal working and it was necessary for Mr. Humphrey to do considerable lecturing not only on the art of metal working but also on the care of tools. As one lady said, "He really looks out for the taxpayers' money."

Bracelet First

The students pay for the metal school. Material for the bracelet project cost 10 cents and the retail value of the finished product is something over a dollar. However, the lady metalsmiths had too much sentimental attachment for their first effort to offer it for sale.

Other projects undertaken by the class include ash trays, miniature coal buckets, aluminum lamps and bread trays. Mr. Humphrey carefully instructs the ladies in the use of all the latest machinery available and the ladies have proven to be very adept craftsmen.

Price Of Farm Foods Show Drop

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(INS)—The Agriculture Department reported today that the price of farm foods purchased by the average family dropped six percent from an all-time high last July to mid-December.

This slump was followed by a further retail decline from mid-December to the middle of January but exact figures are not yet available.

During that period, however, wholesale prices of food dropped four percent and all farm products were off three percent.

Despite the price drop at the end of 1948, the average family planked down a record-breaking $687 for farm foods last year—a $45 increase over 1947, and a $323 rise over the pre-war period of 1935-39.

Dr. W. Flannery
Speaks To Wolves

Health Life Insurance Is Discussed At Regular Dinner-Meeting Of Club

At the regular dinner-meeting of the Wolves club, Tuesday evening at the Castleton, Dr. Wilbur Flannery was heard as the speaker of the evening. He was introduced by H. A. Fazzone.

Dr. Flannery gave the background of the compulsory health life insurance, stressing three points. First, the promotion of the voluntary insurance plan as opposed to the compulsory insurance plan as set forth by a proposed law; second, program of maintaining private practice of medicine; third, the government should enter into the medical field in a limited capacity, namely such as mental cases, periodic school examinations of school children, tuberculosis centers and venereal diseases.

A question and answer period followed.

Program chairman, Anthony Marino announced that a Cleveland excursion has been arranged for June 12, to see the New York Yankees play on "Joe DiMaggio day."

Guests present last evening included the following from the Ellwood City Wolves den: Joseph A. Ferrara, Carmen Balmini, Frank Biordi, Andy Biordi, Frank Barsotti and Michael Cirelli; and also M. Hart and Angelo Casacchia.

March 1, will be the next meeting to be held jointly with the Ellwood City Wolves den.

Unusual Sound Film
At Christ Lutheran

"World of Silence," the new techni-color sound film, portraying Christian education of deaf mutes, will be shown at Christ Lutheran church, East Washington and Beckford streets, Sunday, February 27, at 8 p.m.

The setting of this film is laid in the largest Protestant school for deaf mutes, the Lutheran Deaf Mute Institute of Detroit, Mich., where, by an amazingly successful system of sign-language, deaf mutes are instructed.

This picture is an interesting commentary to the missionary work of Rev. Herbert Rohr, who conducts services for deaf mutes at Christ Lutheran church and also serves groups in Youngstown, Warren, Erie, Buffalo, Oil City and Pittsburgh.

In charge of projection is A. M. Hyde, superintendent of Christ Lutheran Sunday school.

Artists Select Ten
For Make Up Of Composite Girl

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Artists who are up to beauty will select the "ten best" in the world.

After all their votes were counted, their composite girl was mounted, and today the answer is un-

Rita Hayworth's lips they chose, eyes of Princess Margaret Rose, Margaret Truman got the bid on ears.

Linda Darnell's legs were voted, Candy Jones' chin was noted, Esther Williams' thighs evoked loud cheers.

Madame Ching was first in noses, Windsor's duchess won the roses for a forehead far ahead of all.

Then the artists had a tussle over where to place Jane Russell, decided that her cheek bones got the call.

Here, the artists' league insists, is a very lovely list that should win the raves of any man. If your favorite was slighted, criticism is invited. Pick a better "perfect", if you can.

Fifth Consecutive Week Shows Operations At 100 Per Cent Rated Capacity Or More

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Steel operations continue at a record-breaking pace, with the industry operating at 100 percent of rated capacity, or more, for the fifth consecutive week.

This was reported Wednesday by the magazine Iron Age, which pointed out that this marked the fifth consecutive week that steel output has been at an annual rate of more than 97 million tons.

It was observed that operations for the month of January were at an all-time high, with more than eight million tons of ingots and steel for castings produced in that period.

At the same time, the National Metalworking Weekly cautioned that as long as the industry continues this tremendous production pace, it is moving the market factors of supply and demand nearer to the point of balance.

STATE LIQUOR
CONTROL BOARD
GETTING TOUGH

New Policy Calculated To Minimize Violations Of Liquor Board Rulings

HARRISBURG, Feb. 17—(INS)—Chairman Frederick T. Gelder today pointed to a new "get tough" enforcement policy calculated to minimize violations of the State Liquor Control Board's rules.

He emphasized that the campaign against liquor code violators was being "tightened up" on a statewide basis.

Several Pittsburgh taproom owners reportedly were "astounded" recently when their $10-a-day offers in compromise were rejected by the board.

By paying the $10-a-day forfeit, taproom owners may continue in operation during suspension periods if the LCB agrees.

"We have a constant policy of increasing enforcement," Gelder explained. "We always are trying to get tougher."

Stemming back to the first of the year, there has been a considerable reduction in the number of offers in compromise accepted by the board.

Refusing Offers

"We formerly refused to accept offers from violators cited for the third time."

"Now we are refusing to accept them from second-time violators and in certain cases from first-time violators."

He explained that owners of suspended taprooms have expressed surprise when their compromise offers were rejected "because we feel that the penalty when we refuse to accept the offer is more severe."

Liquor Board figures show that of 82 suspensions during the month of January, 36 were compromised, 34 refused and eight compromised after part of the suspension period was served.

In the comparable period of last year, 33 of 95 suspensions were compromised outright, six were refused and four were compromised after part of the suspension was served.

During the entire year of 1948, the LCB said, 347 offers were accepted.

Of these, 80 per cent were first offenders, 17.9 per cent second offenders and 1.3 per cent third offenders.

By paying the $10-a-day forfeit, taproom owners may continue in operation during suspension periods if the LCB agrees.

"We have a constant policy of increasing enforcement," Gelder explained. "We always are trying to get tougher."

Officers of the Westminster Fellowships of Mt. Hermon and Princeton Presbyterians will be installed at a service Sunday evening, February 20, at 7:30 o'clock. The installation, which will be conducted by officers of Westminster Fellowships of Shadyside presbytery, will take place in Mt. Hermon church with Moderator Roy Meahan Jr., Ellwood City, presiding.

Officers to be installed follow: moderator, Russell Perschke; vice moderator, Marjorie Shaffer; secretary, Jean Book, and treasurer, Lois Boyd.

A worship service under the direction of the fellowship committee, of which Marjorie Shaffer is chairman, will open the evening. Lois White Roberts will serve as leader for the joint assembly.

CHICAGO—The judge had to dismiss the assault and battery charge against James Boike. Miss Eleanor Petrov filed the complaint. But she said: "I'm going to marry him Saturday."

The year 1949 will commemorate the death of the two Austrian composers, the Johann Strauss, father and son. The father was born in 1804 and died 100 years ago, in 1899. Both brothers, Josef and Edward.

Waltz king) was born in 1825, and died 50 years ago, in 1899. Both brothers, Josef and Edward.

Mauna Kea, an extinct volcano in Hawaii, is the highest mountain peak in the Pacific, and the highest island mountain in the world. It has an altitude of 14,000 feet.

Its upper slopes are covered with snow the greater part of the year, and its name, which translated means "White Mountain," is derived from this fact.

St. Valentine, whose festival is a highlight of the month of February, vouchsafed for the tradition that the marriage of Mary and Joseph was solemnized with an amethyst ring.

Drive Slow—Children Move Fast.

He explained that owners of suspended taprooms have expressed surprise when their compromise offers were rejected "because we feel that the penalty when we refuse to accept the offer is more severe."

Truckers' Dinner Plans Completed

Dinner And Entertainment At Cathedral Saturday Night To Draw Crowd Of 800

Elaborate plans have been completed for the Pennsylvania Motor Truck association dinner party at The Cathedral Saturday evening. General Chairman James G. Wheeler said today that this year's event promises to be the most gala affair in the history of the local chapter.

Friday morning is the last time that tickets may be purchased, it was announced.

Theodore H. McKeldin, former mayor of Baltimore and reputed to be the best dinner speaker on the east coast, will deliver the principal address. A famous group of radio and stage personalities are scheduled to appear on the well-balanced program which is the most ambitious the chapter has ever undertaken.

Mildren Don, the Men About Town, Aneurin Boddycombe and a musical comedy act from Chicago are the highlights of the post-dinner entertainment.

Chamber music during the dinner hour will be supplied by a trio consisting of Joe Repligle, Ermel Branstrator and Anthony Casbero.

Guests from many counties in western Pennsylvania usually attend the dinners of the local chapter and arrangements have been made for representatives from the Public Utilities Commission and the Inter-state Commerce Commission to be present.

William J. Langan will be the toastmaster for the evening and President J. Fred Clarke is scheduled to welcome the guests.

From ticket sales reported today an estimated crowd of about 800 will attend.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Treasurer James P. Kirk was head man in Pittsburgh today as Mayor David L. Lawrence and his wife speed westward for a three-week vacation.

Before he left, the mayor asked theater experts to investigate every possible means of obtaining a "substitute theater" to replace the famous Nixon, which will be torn down soon to make way for a modern 30-story office building.

Starts Third Year Of Unusual Coma

Accident On February 17, 1947 Puts War Veteran Into World Of His Own

FRAMINGHAM, Mass., Feb. 17. (INS)—A Norwood war veteran begins today his third year in a world all his own.

On February 17, 1947, Ralph Abbott was hurled against a stone wall in Weston when his car hit a tree.

He was knocked unconscious, and has been in a coma ever since. Doctors at Cushing General hospital where the 35-year-old veteran of the Pacific campaign is being cared for say Abbott suffered a lacerated brain which operations have failed to repair.

His condition officially is recorded as "unchanged." Hospital officials won't say what chance Abbott has of ever coming out of his mental prison.

They don't know.

The veteran is fed concentrated liquid food through a nose tube. He is turned every few hours, shaved regularly and receives a haircut when he needs it. He receives baths, and simulated exercise by means of physiotherapy.

Neurologists call Abbott's case one of the most amazing in their memory. But they don't know if his case set any kind of a record. Miss Helen Louise Buschmann died at Westfield in 1947 at the age of 39 after nearly 20 years of irregularly broken sleep.

WIND BALKS SUICIDE

VALLEJO.—A 16-year-old high school girl is alive today because of the winter weather. Coatless, she attempted suicide by leaping from the Carquinez bridge, but was unable to get her leg over the guard rail because of the extremely bitter wind then blowing. Further attempts were prevented by bridge maintenance men, who turned the girl over to probation officers.

School Teacher Takes Real Look At Her Job

(By ELIZABETH MORROW)
State College High School, State College, Pennsylvania.

Did you ever wonder how a school teacher looks at her job? Or how a pupil looks at his teacher? I'll try to give you answers to both of those questions because I think the comparisons are interesting and important.

A good teacher, I believe, must have patience, preparation, personality, and push.

Consider patience: In a day's time, the teacher meets as many as two hundred different children. Each has his own attitude toward learning worthwhile things. Each has his own feelings about growing into the kind of a person we think will be happiest and most useful.

Some of these children are able and confident. Some are shy and scared. Some are of limited background and ability. But in each child, impossible though it seems, the teacher must try to inspire the willingness to accomplish his best.

And don't get the idea that pupils fail to realize what the teacher faces; how well she does her job, and why.

Not long ago, a class of seniors was asked to write a paper on "Why I Choose or Do Not Choose To Be A Teacher." Three "choose" to be teachers; the rest politely declined.

Why? The most common demurrs ran something like this: "I don't have enough patience. I couldn't bother with pupils who can't learn or who don't want to learn."

Realize Supposed Deficiency It is well, I suppose, that the seniors realized this supposed deficiency in patience and planned for other vocations. Yet it was hard for me to believe that more than three could not have developed patience or appreciated the challenge of good teaching and its importance.

Yet patience is a great factor in teaching . . . patience with pupils, parents, and public. Let's take the parents. They become distraught and disappointed when their children do not do as well as they had hoped. Patience is the only answer. Sometimes the public sneers at the accomplishments of the teacher. That's usually because people do not know what we are trying to do and how we are trying to do it; or because they right. Faced with a full schedule and with little time for thought during the day, the teacher must plan every minute of class time with purpose and must check or correct a multitude of papers, projects and other details of student work.

He must find time to plan. He must be ready, willing, and able to pitch in with other tasks—coaching, organizing and advising groups; arranging conferences, consulting, serving on committees, appearing at public meetings, helping at bake sales, card parties—and even writing articles for the newspaper, shall we say?

It's a full and useful life, and I recommend it to any young person who has or can acquire patience, preparation, personality and persistence.

Adequate Preparation I said it another way—adequate preparation. The good teacher has an abundance of subject matter at his command, learned in college courses, from present day literature and journalism, from travel, and from listening to or associating with people who know. The good teacher plans with a purpose and selects for the lesson at hand the material which is most fitting and appealing.

Pupils give second place to another teaching characteristic: "He knows how to put it across." That's all I've indicated, requires personality. It's hard to define but I'm sure it includes such things as freedom under trying circumstances, freedom from cruel sarcasm, a pleasant and easy-to-understand manner of speaking, a sense of humor, and good appearance.

Extremely Important Last of all, but extremely important is push. A good teacher is an efficiency expert in his own right.

the situation uncomfortable for your hostess as well as for the other guests.

You may start to eat leisurely as soon as your food is placed before you and your neighbors. Etiquette no longer requires that you wait for your hostess to eat or that you leave part of your food on your plate to prove that you are not half starved.

Never refuse the first helping of any food passed to you. If you do not like it, take a very small portion and leave it on your plate. Thus you avoid the implication that the menu is not to your taste.

Do not eat faster than your neighbors or make yourself conspicuous by being the only one at your end of the table with an empty plate. Do not push it away from you when you have finished eating. And do not make gestures with your fork, knife or spoon. Avoid putting food with your fork or using your knife to pile it on your fork.

Never raise your glass above horizontal even when you drink the last drop. Be careful that you do not smack your lips or make any mouth or throat sounds when you chew or swallow. Keep your lips absolutely closed while you chew.

Do not mention your dislike of your neighbor seated next to you at a dinner party. To ignore him would make any food whether present on the menu or not. If you imagine your self "allergic" to any particular food, keep that weakness a secret.

Shortly before noon the accused man was brought here from Moundsville near where he had been captured late Tuesday after a wild 15 hour spree.

Replacement Of School Buildings Before Board

During Wednesday night's school board meeting, held at North Street, the proposed replacement of "worn out" buildings, was developed by Dr. Wilbur Flannery, who said:

"This board should get in active plan for necessary buildings to replace those 'worn out'."

Director Daniel Woolcock said North Street and Lincoln-Garfield school buildings need re-building, and said the board must look forward to re-building.

He also said the school board has lots of no use, and said efforts should be made to dispose of them.

Mr. Woolcock pointed out that in Edison avenue the board owns a number of lots, taken over for taxes.

"We should not hold them any longer," Director Woolcock stated.

Disposition of the lots would return them to the tax lists, he explained.

The first iron boat was built in Europe in 1787.

Appointment Of Wallgren Under Attack

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(INS) — Sen. Calm (R) Wash., today blasted appointment of ex-Gov. Mon Wallgren as national security resources chairman as "the most capricious, potentially dangerous and injurious nomination" of the century.

Calm told the senate armed services committee that he is opposing Wallgren "only because of my conviction that he is unsuited for the portfolio for which he has been nominated."

The senator asserted that "personal relationships" with the former governor of Washington had nothing to do with his opposition.

Cain said he would have agreed to appointment of Wallgren to any of "scores" of other government jobs.

But he declared that a study of Wallgren's record shows that he "might be qualified partly" to carry out only two of the six functions outlined for the security resources board.

President Truman, a one-time senate colleague of Wallgren, named the Washingtonian to the security resources post after he was defeated for reelection as governor.

Body Of Soldier Killed On Okinawa To Arrive Friday

Funeral Services For Pfc. Thomas E. Covert To Take Place On Saturday

The body of Pfc. Thomas Edward Covert, aged 26 years, who was killed on Okinawa, April 8, 1945, will arrive here Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock, and will be taken to the John R. Bigner funeral home, 1018 Smith Mill street.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2:30 p.m. from the funeral home, with Dr. J. Paul Graham of the Third U.P. church in charge.

Burial will be made in Greenwood cemetery.

Pfc. Covert was born March 29, 1919 in this city, son of Thomas L. and Bertha Anderson Covert. He was a member of the Central Christian church and was a church deacon. Prior to entering the service, December 5, 1942, he was employed at the National Tube plant in Ellwood City.

Pfc. Covert served overseas for two years. He was attached to the Medical Corps with the Seventh Division of the 184th Infantry, and had seen action in Attu, Kiska, Kujakalain, Leyte and then Okinawa, where he paid the supreme price for his country.

In addition to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Covert, he leaves a brother, Earl R. Covert, this city; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Phillips, of Sharon.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home, Friday 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 o'clock.

A railroad man's watch is supposed to vary not more than 30 seconds a week.

The earliest specimens of ivory carvings extant are the work of French cave dwellers in Dordogne, France, and date from the time when the mammoth and the reindeer roved in southern Europe. They show a good deal of skill in realism and a comprehension of life and movement.

His Own Story

Children like all kinds of stories. When they are young, a prime favorite is the story in which they, themselves, are the heroes.

Sometimes the stories can be imaginative, brave new adventures in which Sammy or Sally venture forth to discover some strange, unheard-of-animal or, in imagination, go to live in another town. But the real stories of the child's past experiences are just as fascinating and sometimes even more so. How they love to hear over and over again what happened in the hospital when they were born, how Daddy rushed Mother to the doctor, and what the nurse said when she first saw the baby!

One of the most helpful things about such stories is that there is so much material on which to draw. Trips to the beach or mountains, visits to Grandma, the day that the horse ran wild past the house—all sorts of experiences are high adventure to the youngsters in whose lives they have played a part.

They will still want storybook tales and the time-worn stories that children have always enjoyed, but their own stories will continue to be favorites until they get to the age when such things are "baby stuff."

Fifteen Clergymen Must Face Trial

SOFIA, Feb. 17.—(INS)—The Bulgarian news agency reported today that the trial of 15 Protestant clergymen charged with espionage will begin on Feb. 25.

The agency said the trial will be held in a regional court in Sofia. The evangelical ministers are accused of espionage on behalf of the United States and Britain. The churchmen were arrested shortly after the Hungarian government imposed a life sentence on Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

Reports reaching Manila said that sulphur fumes accompanied by intense heat have belched from the crater during the past week and frightened the inhabitants into flight.

Russia Quits One U.N. Agency

LAW SUCCESS. N. Y., Feb. 17.—(INS)—Russia, the Ukraine and Belo-Russia on Wednesday quit the World Health Organization, a specialized agency of the United Nations.

In dropping out of the 58-nation body, the Russians explained that they were not satisfied with the work of the health organization and that too much expense is involved.

U.N. Secretary General Trygve Lie, admittedly was shocked but had no immediate comment.

U.N. experts expressed the opinion that Russia's quitting of the W.H.O. does not foreshadow any walkout in general of the Soviet Union from the United Nations.

Space Ship Is Being Planned

Mathematical Research Being Conducted On 10,000 Mile Per Hour Ship

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(INS) —The government is conducting mathematical research on a 10,000-mile-per-hour "space ship" which ultimately would be aimed at speeding between planets.

A chart issued by the Curtiss-Wright Corp., builder of military planes and engines, revealed that government scientists are evaluating the possibility of a rocket-propelled "satellite missile" in the 10,000 M.P.H. class.

Curtiss-Wright officials emphasized, however, that any planning for the projected space ship is strictly in the mathematical stage and could not be considered a possibility in the immediate future. One official said:

Mathematical Problem

"The space ship has been in the scientific mind for some time. However, it's only a mathematical problem now, and far away from the 'hardware' stage where any definite plans could be drawn up." The chart released by Curtiss-Wright with the approval of military authorities traces the development of the Wright airplane engine. It is projected into the future to show that ultimately the 10,000 M.P.H. ship might be constructed.

It also reveals that government scientists are attempting to develop rocket airplanes which would flash through the air at speeds in excess of 4,000 miles per hour.

Seeks Top Speed

The Curtiss-Wright chart also reported that the government seeks a top speed of 1,500 miles per hour for turbo-jet propelled planes and 3,000 miles per hour for ram-jet aircraft.

The top target speed for conventionally propulsed aircraft was listed at about 550 miles per hour. The chart declared that developments in all four of these fields are "secret." It added:

"A closely guarded door, marked 'Military Security,' hides most of them from the public eye."

The company also reported that preliminary tests are being conducted with a new series of rocket engines, described as "completely integrated rocket power plants."

Nylons Suddenly Run Off Their Legs At Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 17—Jacksonville women whose nylons suddenly ran off their legs blamed fumes from the city power plant for their predicament.

Shreds of some of the stockings were sent to Dr. A. P. Black, University of Florida chemistry professor, for analysis and an opinion as to the cause of the debacle which occurred Monday.

(In Wilmington, Del., W. E. Mann, technical engineer of E. I. Du Pont de Nemours Nylon Division, one of the industry's largest producers of nylon stockings, came up with an explanation.

(He explained that acid-bearing soot had caused a similar virtual evaporation of nylons in Washington in 1940 and that such a situation is likely to occur when concentrated acid particles from fires land on the small nylon thread.

Today's Fashion Flash

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Hattie Carnegie today urged women to wear ear-muffs next summer—for "woo-woo," not warmth.

The new-trend muffs are designed with single flowers, bouquets or birds over each ear. They're clamped in position with a fancy version of the bicycle clip. Miss Carnegie also showed a series of skull-caps trimmed to bring out a woman's best facial features.

For the girl with glamorous eyes, a veil was stretched across the lower face, covering nose and chin. To accent a lovely mouth, pull the veil up a couple of inches.

The woman with a good forehead got the medical treatment: A black velvet band stretched across the beauty area, with a diamond medallion dangling in direct center.

HARBORCREEK, Pa., Feb. 17.—(INS)—A Harborcreek man who

Senate Finance Chairman George (D) Ga., said today he wants to wind up reciprocal trade hearings by Tuesday, but the administrative drive for speed hit immediate GOP opposition.

The senate finance committee opens its hearings today, with Assistant Secretary of State Willard Thorp and former Assistant Secretary Will Clayton as the administration's lead-off witnesses.

While George announced his drive to get speedy senate action on the house-passed bill by ending hearings Tuesday, a GOP spokesman said privately that the goal cannot be met.

He said that Republican members expect to have a series of witnesses to support their demand for retention of the 1948 provision calling on the president to get recommendations on trade agreements from the tariff commission.

If George is successful, the measure might reach the senate floor shortly after March 1, which would be during the expected southern filibuster against tightening the senate's gas rule on filibusters.

How they love to hear over and over again what happened in the hospital when they were born, how Daddy rushed Mother to the doctor, and what the nurse said when she first saw the baby!

One of the most helpful things about such stories is that there is so much material on which to draw. Trips to the beach or mountains, visits to Grandma, the day that the horse ran wild past the house—all sorts of experiences are high adventure to the youngsters in whose lives they have played a part.

They will still want storybook tales and the time-worn stories that children have always enjoyed, but their own stories will continue to be favorites until they get to

Replacement Of School Buildings Before Board

During Wednesday night's school board meeting held at North Street school, the proposed replacement of "worn out" buildings, was developed by Dr. Wilbur Flannery, who said:

"This board should get in active plan for necessary buildings to replace those 'worn out'."

Director Daniel Woolcock said North Street and Lincoln-Garfield school buildings need re-building, and said the board must look forward to re-building.

He also said the school board has lots of no use, and said efforts should be made to dispose of them.

Mr. Woolcock pointed out that in Edison avenue the board owns a number of lots, taken over for taxes.

"We should not hold them any longer," Director Woolcock stated. Disposal of the lots would return them to the tax lists, he explained.

Appointment Of Wallgren Under Attack

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(INS)

Sen. Cain (R) Wash., today blasted appointment of ex-Gov. Mon Wallgren as national security resources chairman as "the most capricious, potentially dangerous and injurious nomination" of the century.

Cain told the senate armed services committee that he is opposing Wallgren "only because of my conviction that he is unsuited for the portfolio for which he has been nominated."

The senator asserted that "personal relationships" with the former governor of Washington had nothing to do with his opposition.

Cain said he would agree to appointment of Wallgren to any of "scores" of other government posts.

But he declared that a study of Wallgren's record shows that he "might be qualified partly" to carry out only two of the six functions outlined for the security resources board.

President Truman, a one-time senate colleague of Wallgren, named the Washingtonian to the security resources post after he was defeated for reelection as governor.

ST. LOUIS — A government research institute survey disclosed that clerks in the city's magistrate courts worked only half the time, spending the rest of it on the telephone with "personal and political" calls. It also found that neither of the two stenographers could take shorthand and one couldn't use the typewriter.

Space Ship Is Being Planned

Mathematical Research Being Conducted On 10,000 Mile Per Hour Ship

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(INS) — The government is conducting mathematical research on a 10,000-mile-per-hour "space ship" which ultimately would be aimed at speeding between planets.

A chart issued by the Curtiss-Wright Corp., builder of military planes and engines, revealed that government scientists are evaluating the possibility of a rocket-propelled "satellite missile" in the 10,000 M.P.H. class.

Curtiss-Wright officials emphasized, however, that any planning for the projected space ship is strictly in the mathematical stage and could not be considered a possibility in the immediate future. One official said:

Mathematical Problem

"The space ship has been in the scientific mind for some time. However, it's only a mathematical problem now, and far away from the hardware stage where any definite plans could be drawn up."

The chart released by Curtiss-Wright with the approval of military authorities traces the development of the Wright airplane engine. It is projected into the future to show that ultimately the 10,000 M.P.H. ship might be constructed.

It also reveals that government scientists are attempting to develop rocket airplanes which would flash through the air at speeds in excess of 4,000 miles per hour.

Seeks Top Speed

The Curtiss-Wright chart also reported that the government seeks a top speed of 1,500 miles per hour for turbo-jet propelled planes and 3,000 miles per hour for ram-jet aircraft.

The top target speed for conventional propeller aircraft was listed at about 550 miles per hour.

The chart declared that developments in all four of these fields are "secret." It added:

"A closely guarded door, marked 'Military Security,' hides most of them from the public eye."

The company also reported that preliminary tests are being conducted with a new series of rocket engines, described as "completely integrated rocket power plants."

Nylons Suddenly Run Off Their Legs At Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 17.—Jacksonville women whose nylons suddenly ran off their legs blamed bunions from the city power plant for their predicament.

Shreds of some of the stockings were sent to Dr. A. P. Black, University of Florida chemistry professor, for analysis and an opinion as to the cause of the debacle which occurred Monday.

(In Wilmington, Del., W. E. Mann, technical engineer of E. I. du Pont de Nemours Nylon Division, one of the industry's largest producers of nylon stockings, came up with an explanation.

(He explained that acid-heating soil had caused a similar virtual evaporation of nylons in Washington in 1940 and that such a situation is likely to occur when concentrated acid particles from fires land on the small nylon thread.

Today's Fashion Flash

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Rattle Carnegie today urged women to wear ear-muffs next summer—for "woo-woo," not warmth.

The new-fangled muffs are designed with single flowers, bouquets or birds over each ear. They're clamped in position with a fancy version of the bicycle clip.

Miss Carnegie also showed a series of skull-caps trimmed to bring out a woman's best facial features.

For the girl with glamorous eyes, a veil was stretched across the lower face, covering nose and chin to accent a lovely mouth, pull the veil up a couple of inches.

The woman with a good forehead got the medici treatment: A black velvet band stretched across the beauty area, with a diamond medallion dangling in direct center.

He is 57-year-old George E. Stanley, a former employee of the General Electric corporation in Erie. He lapsed into a mysterious coma in January, 1943, and has been without speech, sight or memory until he woke up last Thursday.

His first sensation, in his own words, was:

"It seemed as if I had been away a long time."

Members of his overjoyed family described his revival as "an almost fantastic miracle."

One of his two sons, Robert, was in the kitchen with his mother. He said:

"Both mother and I were so startled when we heard father's voice that we jumped. It was like a voice from the dead. We rushed into the room and father wanted to know what year it was."

Even the family physician, Dr. J. W. Switzer, admits he can give no medical explanation. He said that Stanly lapsed into the Rip Van Winkle-like sleep after suffering an apparent stroke six years ago.

Stanley awoke to learn that he had two daughters-in-law, that his two sons had been away fighting in great world war, and that his only daughter had died in Pittsburgh.

Stanley talked immediately without trouble, though the rest of the family said they were speechless with amazement.

Although he is still paralyzed from the waist down, Stanley is happy that he can see and hear again and talk to his family.

HARBORCREEK, Pa., Feb. 17.—(INS) — A Harborcreek man who—

Reciprocal Trade Hearings May End By Next Tuesday

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(INS)

Senate Finance Chairman George D. Ga. said today he wants to wind up reciprocal trade hearings by Tuesday, but the administrative drive for speed hit immediate GOP opposition.

The senate finance committee opens its hearings today, with Assistant Secretary of State Willard Thorp and former Assistant Secretary Will Clayton as the administration's lead-off witnesses.

While George announced his drive to get speedy Senate action on the house-passed bill by ending hearings Tuesday, a GOP spokesman said privately that the goal cannot be met.

If he said that Republican members expect to have a series of witnesses to support their demand for retention of the 1948 provision calling on the president to get recommendations on trade agreements from the tariff commission.

If George is successful, the measure might reach the Senate floor shortly after March 1 — which would be during the expected southern filibuster against tightening the Senate's gag rule on filibusters.

Russia Quits One U.N. Agency

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Feb. 17.—(INS)—Russia, the Ukraine and Bialo-Russia on Wednesday, quit the World Health Organization, a specialized agency of the United Nations.

In dropping out of the 58-nation body, the Russians explained that they were not satisfied with the work of the health organization and that too much expense is involved.

U.N. Secretary General Trygve Lie, admittedly was shocked but had no immediate comment.

U.N. experts expressed the opinion that Russia's quitting of the W.H.O. does not foreshadow any walkout in general of the Soviet Union from the United Nations.

Truckers' Dinner Plans Completed

Dinner And Entertainment At Cathedral Saturday Night To Draw Crowd Of 800

Elaborate plans have been completed for the Pennsylvania Motor Truck association dinner party at The Cathedral Saturday evening. General Chairman James G. Wheeler said today that this year's event promises to be the most gala affair in the history of the local chapter.

Friday morning is the last time that tickets may be purchased, it was announced.

Theodore H. McEldin, former mayor of Baltimore and reputed to be the best after-dinner speaker on the east coast, will deliver the principal address. A famous group of radio and stage personalities are scheduled to appear on the well-balanced program which is the most ambitious the chapter has ever undertaken.

Mildred Don, the Men About Town, Aneurin Boddycombe and a musical comedy act from Chicago are the highlights of the post-dinner entertainment.

Chamber music during the dinner hour will be supplied by a trio consisting of Joe Reagle, Ermel Subterfitter and Anthony Casbero.

Guests from many counties in western Pennsylvania usually attend the dinners of the local chapter and arrangements have been made for representatives from the Public Utilities Commission and the Inter-state Commerce Commission to be present.

William J. Langan will be the toastmaster for the evening and President J. Fred Clarke is scheduled to welcome the guests.

From ticket sales reported today an estimated crowd of about 800 will attend.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Treasurer James P. Kirk was head man in Pittsburgh today as Mayor David L. Lawrence and his wife speeded westward for a three-week vacation.

Before he left, the mayor asked theater experts to investigate every possible means of obtaining a "substitute theater" to replace the famous Nixon, which will be torn down soon to make way for a modern 30-story office building.

Starts Third Year Of Unusual Coma

Accident On February 17, 1947
Put War Veteran Into World
Of His Own

FRAMINGHAM, Mass., Feb. 17.—(INS)—A Norwood war veteran begins today his third year in a world all his own.

On February 17, 1947, Ralph Abbott was hurried against a stone wall in Weston when his car hit a tree.

He was knocked unconscious, and has been in a coma ever since. Doctors at Cushing General hospital where the 35-year-old veteran of the Pacific campaign is being cared for say Abbott suffered a lacerated brain which operations have failed to repair.

His condition officially is recorded as "unchanged." Hospital officials won't say what chance Abbott has of ever coming out of his mental prison.

They don't know.

The veteran is fed concentrated liquid food through a nose tube. He is turned every few hours, shaved regularly and receives a haircut when he needs it. He receives baths, and simulated exercise by means of physiotherapy.

Neurologists call Abbott's case one of the most amazing in their memory. But they don't know if his case set any kind of a record. Miss Helen Louise Buschmann died at Westford in 1947 at the age of 38 after nearly 20 years of irregularly broken sleep.

WIND BALKS SUICIDE
VALLEJO.—A 16-year-old high school girl is alive today because of the winter weather. Callous, she attempted suicide by leaping from the Carquinez bridge, but was unable to get her leg over the guard rail because of the extremely bitter wind which was blowing. Further attempts were prevented by bridge maintenance men, who turned the girl over to probation officers.

School Teacher Takes Real Look At Her Job

(By ELIZABETH MORROW)

State College High School, State College, Pennsylvania.

Did you ever wonder how a school teacher looks at her job? Or how a pupil looks at his teacher?

I'll try to give you answers to both of those questions because I think the comparisons are interesting and important.

A good teacher, I believe, must have patience, preparation, personality, and push.

Consider patience: In a day's time, the teacher meets as many as two hundred different children. Each has his own attitude toward learning worthwhile things. Each has his own feelings about growing into the kind of a person we think will be happiest and most useful.

Some of these children are able and confident. Some are shy and scared. Some are of limited background and ability. But in each child, impossible though it seems, the teacher must try to inspire the willingness to accomplish his best.

And don't get the idea that pupils fail to realize what the teacher faces, how well she does her job, and why.

Not long ago, a class of seniors was asked to write a paper on "Why I Choose (or Do Not Choose) To Be a Teacher." Three "chose" to be teachers; the rest politely declined.

Extremely Important: Why? The most common demurrs ran something like this: "I don't have enough patience. I couldn't bother with pupils who can't learn or who don't want to learn."

Realize Supposed Deficiency: It is well, I suppose, that the seniors realized this supposed deficiency in patience and planned for other vocations. Yet it was hard for me to believe that more than three could not have developed patience or appreciated the challenge of good teaching and its importance.

Yet patience is a great factor in teaching . . . patience with pupils, parents, and public. Let's take the parents. They become disengaged and disappointed when their children do not do as well as they had hoped. Patience is the only answer. Sometimes the public sneers at the accomplishments of the teacher. That's usually because people do not know what we are trying to do and how we are trying to do it; or because they right. Faced with a full schedule and with little time for thought during the day, the teacher must plan every minute of class time with purpose and must check or correct a multitude of papers, projects and other details of student work.

He must find time to plan. He must be ready, willing, and able to pitch in with other tasks—coaching, organizing and advising groups arranging conferences, consulting, serving on committees, appearing at public meetings, helping at bake sales, card parties—and even writing articles for the newspaper, shall we say?

It's a full and useful life, and I recommend it to any young person who has or can acquire patience, preparation, personality and push!

DINNER PARTY ETIQUETTE

I am about to attend my first dinner party at my fiance's home. Do give me some highlights on dinner party etiquette.

Answer: Be equally attentive to your neighbors on both sides of you, whether you dislike one of them or not. Talk to both of them impartially. You must talk even to your worst enemy if you find him seated next to you at a dinner party. To ignore him would make the situation uncomfortable for your hostess as well as for the other guests.

You may start to eat leisurely as soon as your food is placed before you and your neighbors. Etiquette no longer requires that you wait for your hostess to eat or that you leave part of your food on your plate to prove that you are not half starved.

Do not refuse the first helping of any food passed to you. If you do not like it, take a very small portion and leave it on your plate. Thus you avoid the implication that the menu is not to your taste.

Do not eat faster than your neighbors or make yourself conspicuous by being the only one at your end of the table with an empty plate. Do not push it away from you when you have finished eating. And do not make gestures with your fork, knife or spoon. Avoid pattering food with your fork or using your knife to pile it on your fork.

Never raise your glass above horizontal even when you drink the last drop. Be careful that you do not smack your lips or make any mouth or throat sounds when you chew or swallow. Keep your lips absolutely closed while you chew.

Do not mention your dislike of any food whether present on the menu or not. If you imagine your self "allergic" to any particular food, keep that weakness a secret.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

STATE LIQUOR
CONTROL BOARD
GETTING TOUGH

New Policy Calculated To Minimize Violations Of Liquor Board Rulings

HARRISBURG, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Chairman Frederick T. Gelder today pointed to a new "get tough" enforcement policy calculated to minimize violations of the State Liquor Control Board's rules.

He emphasized that the campaign against liquor code violators was being "tightened up" on a statewide basis.

Several Pittsburgh taproom owners reportedly were "astounded" recently when their $10-a-day offers in compromise accepted by the board.

By paying the $10-a-day forfeit, taproom owners may continue in operation during suspension periods if the LCB agrees.

"We have a constant policy of increasing enforcement," Gelder explained. "We always are trying to get tougher."

Stepping back to the first of the year, there has been a considerable reduction in the number of offers in compromise accepted by the board.

Refusing Offers

"We formerly refused to accept offers from violators cited for the third time."

"Now we are refusing to accept them from second-time violators and in certain cases from first-time violators."

He explained that owners of suspended taprooms have expressed surprise when their compromise offers were rejected "because they feel that the penalty when we refuse to accept the offer is more severe."

Liquor Board figures show that 92 suspensions during the month of January, 36 were compromised, 34 refused and eight compromised after part of the suspension period was served.

In the comparable period of last year, 33 of 95 suspensions were compromised outright, six were refused and four were compromised after part of the suspension was served.

During the entire year of 1948, the LCB said, 547 offers were accepted.

Of these, 80 per cent were first offenders, 17.9 per cent second offenders and 1.3 per cent third offenders.

By paying the $10-a-day forfeit, taproom owners may continue in operation during suspension periods if the LCB agrees.

CHICAGO—The judge had to dismiss the assault and battery charge against James Boike. Miss Eleanor Petrov filed the complaint but she said: "I'm going to marry him Saturday."

The year 1949 will commemorate the death of the two Austrian composers, the Johann Strauss, father and son. The father was born in 1804 and died 100 years ago, in 1849; the son Johann (the Waltz king) was born in 1825, and died 50 years ago, in 1899. Both were born in Vienna, which is also true of Johann's two younger brothers, Josef and Edward.

Mauna Kea, an extinct volcano in Hawaii, is the highest mountain peak in the Pacific, and the highest island mountain in the world. It has an altitude of 14,000 feet. Its upper slopes are covered with snow the greater part of the year, and its name, which translated means "White Mountain," is derived from this fact.

St. Valentine, whose festival is a highlight of the month of February, vouchsafed for the tradition that the marriage of Mary and Joseph was solemnized with an amethyst ring.

Jesus Chooses His Apostles

THE TWELVE ARE SELECTED FROM DISCIPLES

Jesus points the twelve.

Jesus said, "Follow Me." —Mark 1:14.

Scripture — Matthew 4:18-22; Mark 1:16-20; 3:13-19; Luke 6:12-16.
 By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
 When the president of the United States takes office, he appoints his cabinet, and presumably chooses the very best man available for the particular post to which he is appointed.

When any one of us is chosen chairman of a committee to do some special piece of work in an organization, to which we belong, we look about us to see which members of the association are best fitted to administer the program so as to do the most good to the greatest number of needy people.

The American Protestant and Orthodox churches, is planning their program of rehabilitation in more than 40 countries of Europe, Asia and Africa, chose the men and women who were best fitted to administer the program so as to do the most good to the greatest number of needy people.

Jesus, in choosing the twelve apostles, did not do so lightly and without due thought. In fact, the Lord spent the whole night in a mountain in earnest prayer to God before He met His disciples to make the choice of twelve to be His constant companions, to help Him in His work, and to carry on that work after He had gone.

Both Matthew and Mark tell of Jesus' calling of "Simon" called Peter, and Andrew his brother. These two men were fishermen and were busy casting their net in the Sea of Galilee — Jesus' favorite spot. You will recall that Capernaum, on the northern shore of this sea, was called "His city."

Matthew's words are: "And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers. And He said unto them, Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." And they straightway left their nets, and followed Him.

Going further, Jesus saw two other brothers, James, son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with their father, mending nets, and He called them. They to left their work and their father and followed Him.

These men undoubtedly had a is accused of beating and burning her great-aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Norris, to death.

Madelene Daugherty testified that she heard a call for help and went and looked down the cellar steps. She said she saw Deloris at the bottom of the steps and the girl told her "my aunt's on fire."

Miss Daugherty said, however, that she saw Mrs. Norris standing in the basement with blood on her face, but didn't see any fire. She and her sister ran to summon aid, she continued, but when they returned they heard screams coming from the cellar and the door was closed and locked.

Defense Attorney Charles J. Margiotti made two more attempts Wednesday to have a mistrial declared. A previous attempt had failed.

Margiotti declared that jurors had heard prosecution Samuel Strauss call Margiotti's chief investigator a "stom pigeon," and that another time Strauss had smiled at a juror and the juror smiled back.

American Program To Reform Japan Facing Challenge

TOKYO, Feb. 17.—(INS)—The American program to reform Japan will receive its most severe challenge during the coming months as a result of the surprising recent election which greatly strengthened both the extreme right and extreme left.

The Communists, with 35 seats in the Diet and almost three million popular votes behind them, already are driving hard to control Japanese labor which no longer can depend upon the crushed Social Democratic party for political leadership.

Extension of Communist control over a greater portion of Japan's labor movement might force the Allied occupation to hedge on some of its early reform measures.

In the past Gen. Douglas MacArthur has made it amply clear he wants a healthy trade union setup in Japan but that he will not tolerate a labor movement harnessed to a political party.

Of even greater significance to the reform program than the Communists, however, are the 268 members of the right-wing Democratic Liberal party who won seats in the lower house of the Diet.

The Democratic Liberals are expected to make what capital they can of the Communist threat to fight reform.

Dr. W. Flannery
Speaks To Wolves

Health Life Insurance Is Discussed At Regular Dinner-Meeting Of Club

At the regular dinner-meeting of the Wolves club, Tuesday evening at the Castleton, Dr. Wilbur Flannery was heard as the speaker of the evening. He was introduced by H. A. Fazzone.

Dr. Flannery gave the background of the compulsory health life insurance, stressing three points. First, the promotion of the voluntary insurance plan as opposed to the compulsory insurance plan set forth by a proposed law; second, program of maintaining private practice of medicine; third, the government should enter into the medical field in a limited capacity, namely such as mental cases, periodic school examinations of school children, tuberculosis centers and venereal diseases.

A question and answer period followed.

Program chairman, Anthony Marino announced that a Cleveland excursion has been arranged for June 12, to see the New York Yankees play on "Joe DiMaggio day."

Guests present last evening included the following from the Ellwood City Wolves den: Joseph A. Ferrara, Carmen Balmini, Frank Bordi, Andy Bordi, Frank Basotti and Michael Cirelli; and also M. Hart and Angelo Casacchia.

March 1, will be the next meeting, to be held jointly with the Ellwood City Wolves den.

Unusual Sound Film
At Christ Lutheran

"World of Silence," the new techni-color sound film, portraying Christian education of the deaf, will be shown at Christ Lutheran church, East Washington and Beckford streets, Sunday, February 27, at 8 p.m.

The setting of this film is laid in the largest Protestant school for deaf mutes, the Lutheran Deaf Mute Institute of Detroit, Mich., where, by an amazingly successful system of sign-language, deaf mutes are instructed.

This picture is an interesting commentary to the missionary work of Rev. Herbert Rohe, who conducts services for deaf mutes at Christ Lutheran church and also serves groups in Youngstown, Warren, Erie, Buffalo, Oil City and Pittsburgh.

In charge of projection is A. M. Hyde, superintendent of Christ Lutheran Sunday school.

Artists Select Ten
For Make Up Of Composite Girl

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Artists who are hep to beauty, think it is their yearly duty to select the "ten best" in the world.

After all their votes were counted, their composite girl was mounted, and today the answer is unfurled.

Rita Hayworth's lips they chose, eyes of Princess Margaret Rose, Margaret Truman got the bid on.

Linda Darnell's legs were voted, Candy Jones' chin was noted, Esther Williams' thighs evoked loud cheers.

Madame Chiang was first in noses, Windsor's duchess won the roses for a forehead far ahead of all.

Then the artists had a tussle over where to place Jane Russell, decided that her cheek bones got the call.

Here, the artists' league insists, is a very lovely list that should win the raves of any man. If your favorite was slighted, criticism is invited. Pick a better "perfect", if you can.

Fifth Consecutive Week Shows Operations At 100 Per Cent Rated Capacity Or More

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Steel operations continue at a record-breaking pace, with the industry operating at 100 percent of rated capacity, or more, for the fifth consecutive week.

This was reported Wednesday by the magazine Iron Age, which pointed out that this marked the fifth consecutive week that steel output has been at an annual rate of more than 97 million tons.

It observed that operations for the month of January were at an all-time high, with more than eight million tons of ingots and steel for castings produced in that period.

At the same time, the National Metalworking Weekly cautioned that as long as the industry continues this tremendous production pace, it is moving the market factors of supply and demand nearer to the point of balance.

Price Of Farm Foods Show Drop

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(INS)—

The Agriculture Department reported today that the price of farm foods purchased by the average family dropped six percent from an all-time high last July to mid-December.

This slump was followed by a further retail decline from mid-December to the middle of January but exact figures are not yet available.

During that period, however, wholesale prices of food dropped four percent and all farm products were off three percent.

Despite the price drop at the end of 1948, the average family planked down a record-breaking $687 for farm foods last year—a $45 increase over 1947, and a $323 rise over the pre-war period of 1935-39.

Lenten Classes

Mrs. George Morris announced that the Lenten classes held so successfully by the Y. W. C. A. for many years will be held again this year. Dr. Robert F. Gabreath will teach the classes to be held every Thursday morning for four weeks beginning March 17. They will be open to everyone interested.

Mrs. Roy A. Long announced that the report meetings for the spring gathering will also be held immediately following the Lenten classes in the form of luncheon meetings in the Green room.

Classes which will begin next week will include making of slip covers to be taught by Mrs. Paul Allison, knitting by Mrs. Paul G. Dingley; painting by Mrs. E. A. Kuhman, and lamp shades by Mrs. Sarah Nicholson. These classes are also open to anyone wishing to enter. More details can be secured by calling the Y. W. C. A.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. David George, the Wednesday afternoon free Y. W. nursery has an average of 12 youngsters each Wednesday. Mrs. Charles Bacon is the assistant.

Mrs. James W. Moorehead will represent the Y. W. C. A. on the board of the Community Chest. Chairmen and board members wishing to make contributions to the Y-News, a Y. W. publication, should submit them in writing to the Y. W. C. A. by Friday, the 25th. The Y-News will be mailed to the membership during the first week of March.

NO FASTER ARTHRITIC PAIN RELIEF KNOWN... SAFE

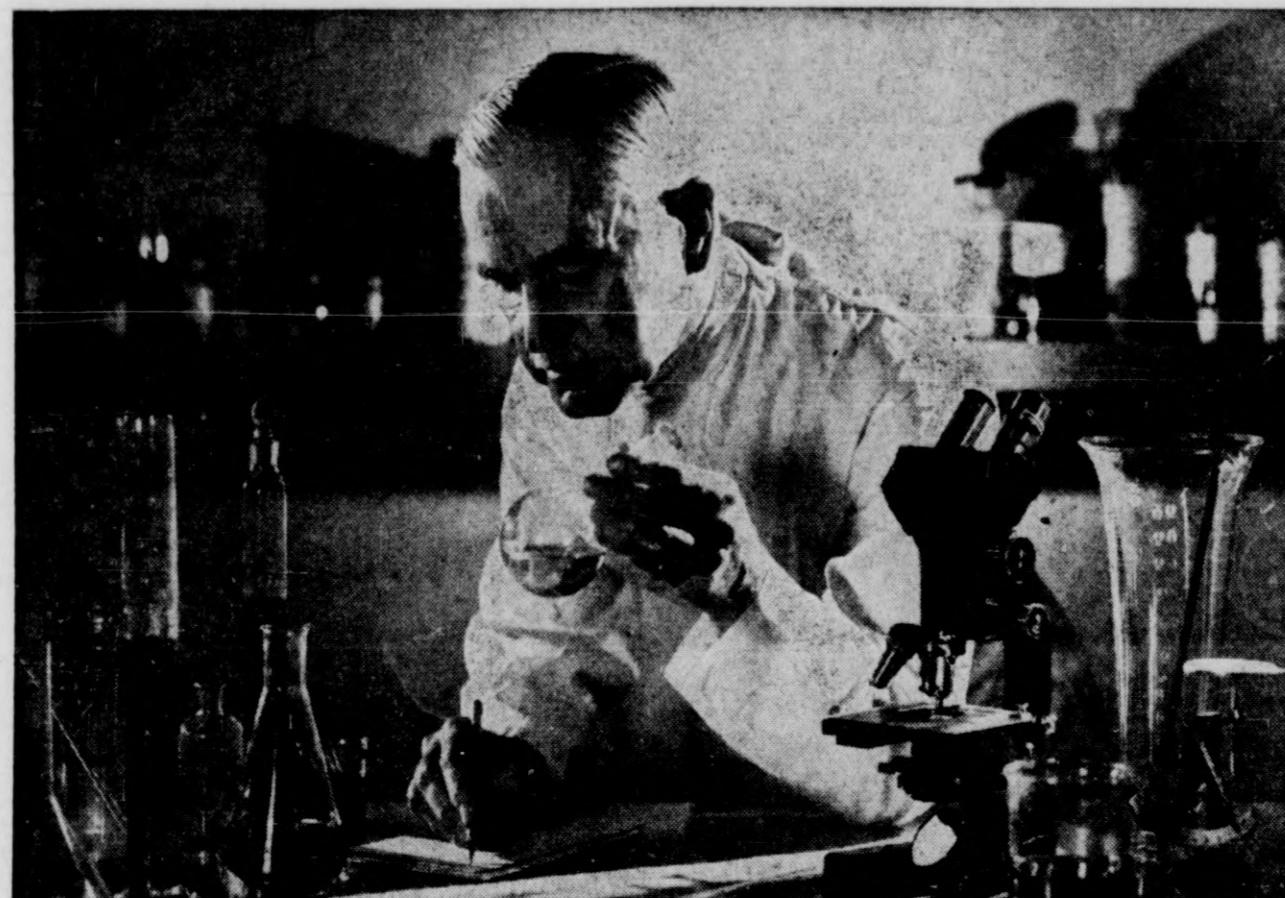

HOSPITAL TESTED

Stops Swelling.. Uncorks Joints.. Contains Sensational New Research Discovery

NEW, SAFE, SCIENTIFIC TABLET
Not a Narcotic... Not Habit Forming...

AT LAST THE STORY CAN BE TOLD! Medical science developed the amazing wonder-working drugs Sulfa and Penicillin... then turned attention to relieving the agonizing pains caused by rheumatism and arthritis. The result of extensive research is a wonder-working ingredient which is now combined with other pharmaceuticals into a remarkable preparation called IMDRIN. Longtime sufferers from rheumatism, arthritis, neuritis, and gout may find IMDRIN gives glorious relief so sensational fast it's really amazing! There's nothing faster available to the public today. Contains no dope or harmful drugs. Only after three long years of clinical work and hospital testing was this fast, safe pain-killer developed, but today it is REALITY. If you suffer rheumatic pain ask for IMDRIN at drug stores.

DEVELOPED AFTER THREE YEARS OF EXTENSIVE TESTS IN HOSPITAL CLINICS

IMDRIN has been a closely guarded experimental secret before release for public use. Yes, medical men, after three years of extensive hospital tests, have proved conclusively that IMDRIN works internally toward amazing reduction of pain, heat, redness, and swelling in the joints. Patients undergoing IMDRIN therapy in these hospital clinics often were able to resume comfortable living completely, after other remedies had failed. Every victim of rheumatism, arthritis, neuritis, sciatica, gout, neuralgia, etc., should investigate this new development of modern medicine. Ask for IMDRIN at drug stores. Truly IMDRIN is today's big proprietary success.

Relieves Pain and Suffering After 20 Years of Torture!

"I call IMDRIN a miracle and you can understand why when I tell you that the pain which had tortured me for twenty years, which I could hardly stand to bear, was gone after I had taken IMDRIN. Now, for the first time in years, I can move about without pain and enjoy life once again. Surely the thousands of people like myself who have suffered from the pains of arthritis should be happy to learn about the blessed, fast-acting ingredient which IMDRIN contains. It surely goes to work fast and gets results." Gratefully yours,

A. G.
Chicago, Illinois

"I am not getting paid for these words, but I want everyone to know what I know about IMDRIN. I had rheumatism and arthritis in my left shoulder and arm so bad I could hardly use it. Everytime I moved my arm it hurt just like sticking a knife into it. I was a sick person and I am glad to tell all my friends about the wonderful relief from IMDRIN. It really is an amazing remedy."

MRS. A. R. WEBB
111 N. Bryan Street, Amarillo, Texas

"Even though my daughter is a registered nurse she could not find anything to help her agonizing arthritic pains. She tried everything but nothing did her any good. Then she bought IMDRIN and she has had miraculous results. I am glad to tell all my friends about the wonderful relief from IMDRIN. It really is an amazing remedy."

WHERE RHEUMATISM STRIKES ... AND HOW TO DETECT IT!

Rheumatic and arthritic pain and inflammation can strike the joints in any of the indicated affected areas. (See arrows in chart above.) But these diseases have many forms and each form has varying symptoms. Rheumatoid arthritis is an infection of the joints which fill with fluid; the skin around them may be red, the joints themselves swollen and painful. Still another form causes specific infectious arthritis.

All these various forms of arthritis and rheumatism are accompanied by pain; very often swelling and loss of function of the joints. Hospital and clinical test patients undergoing IMDRIN therapy, some of whom had suffered hopelessly for as long as twenty years, were able to resume more happy, active living once the pain subsided and their confidence grew. In cases where the joints were swollen, IMDRIN, working internally, reduced swelling and eased pain rapidly. These patients, many of whom had given up hope, were able to once again resume comfortable living. It is true that response to IMDRIN varied occasionally and your own experience may or may not coincide with that of patients tested. But IMDRIN today is your greatest hope. IMDRIN, with the new wonder-working ingredient, may give you the same blessed successful results. Get IMDRIN today!

How IMDRIN Helps You!

If you have suffered the tortures of the damned because of rheumatic and arthritic pains, swelling and stiffness... if you get up mornings dreading the suffering the day may hold, and do it day after day, month after month, year after year... listen! IMDRIN may answer your problem of comfortable living. In case after case IMDRIN has proved its potency. IMDRIN is one of the fastest arthritic and rheumatic pain relievers known to medical science. Cases deemed almost hopeless... persons who suffered and waited and hoped for as long as twenty years were able to live happy comfortable human lives once again. No other medicament for rheumatism and arthritis can make this amazing statement... and back it up with proven hospital and clinical records. DON'T GIVE UP HOPE. Amazing new IMDRIN brings new hope of a better life for you... and it is as close to you right now as your nearest drug store. Get IMDRIN today. Use only as directed. If you don't agree that amazing, new, scientific IMDRIN is the greatest blessing you've ever discovered, return for your money back. Get IMDRIN today... resume comfortable living tonight!

Consider Making Demand For Recall Of Hungarian Envoy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Secretary of State Acheson indicated that the United States is considering asking the recall of Hungarian Minister Andrew Sik in retaliation for Budapest's ouster of U.S. Minister Selden Chapin.

Acheson was asked at a news conference if any action regarding Sik is being contemplated. He replied:

The State Department has given a great deal of thought to the situation created by the fact that Chapin's withdrawal had been asked.

But he emphasized that no decision has yet been made.

Hypochondria was a word used originally by the ancients to denote rearrangements of the abdominal region.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

THERE COMES TODAY a letter from Ira Hartzler, Volant, R.D. 3, concerning deer. It is self-explanatory and follows:

Volant, Pa., R. D. 3
Feb. 14, 1949

Here & There in Sports Land.

Dear Sir:

I have followed with interest the discussion in your column regarding the proposed antlerless deer season for 1949, and I believe all sportsmen appreciate the opportunity to express their opinion regarding this matter.

It is a known fact that more deer were killed in Lawrence county last year than ever before, and there is only one reason for this, namely that the mountain or forest districts are over-browsed, and the deer herd is scattering over the farming sections simply because there is little food for them elsewhere.

The average deer hunter is rather well pleased about the possibility of hunting right here in Lawrence county, but the majority of the farmers take a different attitude. Deer can play havoc with a field of wheat, buckwheat or corn.

Another thing we should consider is the matter of safety. We have been very fortunate in not having any stray bullet accidents in this comparatively level district. If we should have in the future, we will probably be limited, as the State of Ohio was last year to using shotguns and buckshot.

We of this Commonwealth are fortunate in having a Game Commission, men who are level headed and have had enough practical experience in Game Conservation to know what is best for the entire state. Another thing we should appreciate is our splendid training school for field officers, ranking as one of the best in the nation.

We also do not know what deer snow could do during the remainder of February and the month of March, so, possibly it is a little early to decide whether or not an antlerless deer season is necessary or practical. However the fact remains, the deer herd must be kept under control.

The one matter which sportsmen should be concerned about is the increasing number of game law violations. Why a so-called deer hunter would deliberately kill an illegal deer (4,500, last year), is hard to understand.

Let's observe our Game Laws at all times and co-operate with our Game Commission and field officers and we will have better hunting all around.

Very sincerely yours

(Signed) IRA HARTZLER.

Johnny Brincko said yesterday he is highly pleased with the bowing of the Brincko's, now rolling in the ABC at Atlantic City. — Seth Myers, secretary, northwest division, State Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, writes anent the deer population: "Whether we like it or not the question; the herd has brought under control. At present there are too many of these big game animals in sections such as Mercer county." He adds that on one night in Mercer county, five deer on five different roads within a radius of five miles were killed." . . . According to Herman Steinbrink, president of the LCSA, the association here was against any increase, favored by the State Federation of Sportsmen, in hunting fees. If the legislature passes their action, license will cost $3.65. It is now $2.

Bud Elliott, former Sharon high and Grove City college basketball star, was honored by Bay Shore, L. I. fans when his high school team won its two hundredth victory. . . . Joltin' Joe DiMaggio, $90,000 baseball star, was neophyte in his youth. His average day's pay then was $1.50. . . . Commissioner Charlie French, State Fish Commission, told the State Federation of Sportsmen, 2,000,000 legal-sized trout were stocked in Pennsylvania last year. . . . Harry Shoaff, the painter, can reel off tales of yesterday's important fistcuffs. . . . The Veteran Boxer, Philadelphia 'mag' will carry two tales by Here & There in April. One "Jimmy Dime's Brigade" and the other "Pennsylvania's Last Barn Fight" (1909). . . . State-wide examinations will be held at Harrisburg, February 24, for applicants seeking registration as baseball officials of the PIAA.

City's pugilism is in need of a shot in the arm. At present, there is only one fighter who commands outside notice. He is Frankie Moran, the welterweight. Elkins Brothers has gone to Washington, D. C., and is considered a resident of the national capital. Ellwood City has a good prospect in Billy Pozza, the heavyweight. The situation is quite different to that several decades ago when the city received exploitation through the gloved-fists of Tony Ross, Jimmy Dunn, Patsy Brannigan, Tom McMahon, George Chip, and others. Were a capable instructor to start a stable here the situation might be reversed within a few years. . . . Clyde Burkholder, local hunter, believes too much wild game is killed by fox and states more than $4 should be paid as bounty on Sir Reynard. . . . Cambridge Springs Goodfellows club has started a campaign to raise funds to buy, and stock walleyes, and possibly other species of fish in Franch creek.

Foreign Stars May Grab Track Records

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(INS)— American indoor track experts virtually conceded today that three of their most prized championships seem destined for overseas delivery without benefit of the Marshall plan.

Never before has more than one title left the country in the same year. But European aces apparently have the one-mile, three-mile and 1,000-yard championships all but nailed down in Saturday's upcoming National A. A. U. meet.

The superiority of foreign distance stars was emphasized last weekend as they ran 1-2-3 in the mile and 1-2 in the two-mile events in the New York A. C. games.

Not even two world records—by George Guida of Villanova in the Buermeier 500-yard run and Henry Laskau of the Maccabi A. C. in the mile walk—could steal the spotlight.

A slim crowd of less than 10,000—smallest in recent New York indoor track history—watched

Holland's Willy Slykhuis take the mile with Marcel Hansenne of France and Ingvar Bengtsson of Sweden close behind him. Slykhuis' time was 4:09.2, best of the season.

Then Gaston Reiff, the balding Belgian, took the Toussaint two-mile in 8:53.8, best clocking since the days of Greg Rice. Following him was Sweden's Erik Ahlden.

Gehrmann Out

The U. S. is all the more vulnerable in the A. A. U. championships because Don Gehrmann of Wisconsin will not compete. Don is the only American to interrupt the parade of foreign successes.

Saturday, Reiff and Ahlden will compete in the three-mile event, equivalent to the 5,000 meter distance at which the Belgian is Olympic champion. Bengtsson and Hansenne will race at 1,000 yards and Slykhuis will dominate the mile.

On the brighter domestic note, Guida will be entered in the 600-yard run, where he'll be favored after his 56.9 second record performance last week over 500 yards.

Harrison Dillard, who didn't compete in the New York A. C. games, will defend his hurdles championship against Penn State's Jim Gehrdes and others. Gehrdes took charge of the 60-yard barriers in 7.2 seconds last week.

WEATHER HAMPERS BOILED EVENTS

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 17.—(INS)—The fate of the world bobbed championships, plagued by rain and warm weather at Lake Placid, was to be determined today. H. L. Garren, organizing committee chairman, said it was still hoped that both two-man and four-man championships can be held this weekend. He said, however, that a good cold snap will be necessary to put the Mt. Hoevenburg run in shape.

Lee Savold is anxious to get a crack at Joe Louis and his title this summer because he sincerely believes that the next fellow who gets Joe into the ring has a wonderful chance of becoming the new champion.

The National Hockey League's two leading clubs, Detroit and Boston, were thankful today that not every night is like last night.

In New York, the last place Rangers shut out the high-flying Red Wings, 4 to 0, with goalie Chuck Raynor blocking 42 shots to gain his seventh shutout.

A tight game at Chicago suddenly exploded in the startled faces of the Bruins when the hometown Blackhawks scored four times in the third period. The final score was 5 to 1.

Reds Clinch Eastern Title

The Rhode Island Reds clinched the American Hockey League's eastern division crown by defeating the Washington Lions, 12-4, while the Philadelphia Rockets were beating the second-place Hershey Bears, 6-5.

The Indianapolis Capitals wedged their hold on first place in the western division by beating second-place Cleveland, 6-3.

In other tilts, the Buffalo Bisons beat the St. Louis Flyers, 6-2, and the Springfield Indians tied the Pittsburgh Hornets, 3-3.

SPORTS EDITOR IS ALSO STAR ATHLETE

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Feb. 17.—(INS)—Geneva college students never feel they are getting second hand information from the sport pages of The Cabinet, the school paper.

In addition to serving as sports editor of the paper, Warren Weakland is a star forward on the basketball squad and a steady pitcher with the baseball team. He is from New Kensington, Pa.

Horace Ashenfelter, Penn State distance ace, is on the mend but he's not yet certain that he'll be ready to defend his IC-4A two-mile title in February. The Collegeville youth broke a small bone in his foot two months ago.

SHORT SPORTS

The Yankees made a great run for the pennant last season, after winning the world title the previous year, but they fell short when the Indians and Red Sox finished in a deadlock. It wouldn't be surprising if the Indians won it almost as they please this time.

A year ago, Veeck attempted to trade Boudreau to the St. Louis Browns but decided against it after being deluged with protests from Cleveland fans.

You may have noticed that the front offices of the New York Giants have been strangely silent this winter on the team's prospects.

TAYLOR DECISIONS YOUNG AL HERSCHE

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Chuck Taylor, veteran Coalport, Pa., welterweight, considered today that he had evened a boxing score.

Taylor gained a round decision last night over young Al Herschel of New York, who held him to draw a month ago in Miami.

Sixty-Seven Employees Of New Castle Store Receive Statement of Their Percentage

Sixty-seven employees of the Sears, Roebuck & Co. store in New Castle today received first hand evidence that their company had enjoyed another successful year in 1948.

The evidence came in the form of individual statements which showed the extent to which each of these 67 men and women had shared in the company's 1948 profits by way of their membership in "The Savings and Profit Sharing Pension Fund of Sears, Roebuck and Co. Employees."

Investment Worth $90,054.32

After distributing the statements C. M. Bashev, manager of the store, disclosed that this local employee group have to their credit in the fund an aggregate of 1,822,604 shares of Sears stock plus a cash balance of $20,795.37. Based on a January 31st market value of $38 per share for Sears stock, this group has an investment worth, in the aggregate, $90,054.32.

Mrs. Bashev explained that employee members of the fund deposit five per cent of their salaries into their individual accounts each year, with the maximum deposit limited to $250 annually. Sears each year places in the fund an established percentage of its profits. This sum is credited to the employee members on a length-of-service basis. For example, at the close of 1948, those employees with less than five years service with Sears had credited to their accounts $1.15 for every dollar they themselves contributed. Employees who have been with the company from five to ten years were credited with $2.30 for every dollar saved. For those with over ten years service, the company placed $3.45 into the fund for every dollar put in by the member.

The fourth participating group—employees over fifty years of age with over fifteen years service—were credited $4.60 from the company for every dollar deposited. The fund now owns 19 per cent of Sears stock and this ownership makes it the company's largest single stockholder, Mr. Bashev said.

The fund's current assets now amount to $216,500,000 (based on a January 31st value of $38 a share). However, the actual money deposited by the present employee membership in order to amass this value has been only $39,500,000.

An old southern colonel told his physician, "Doctor, we bein' ol' friends and soldiers together, I don't intend to insult you, suh, by offerin' you cash for your services. I intend, however, to leave you a handsome legacy in mab wif."

The doctor reflected momentarily and said, "That is mighty kind of you, suh, and I deeply appreciate your delicate sentiments. Meanwhile, would yo' just let me have that prescription again fo' a moment? There is a slight alteration I want to make in it."

A senior in the Pulitzer School of Journalism observed, "Even bartenders make more money than authors today. I don't know whether to take a job in Greco's hardware shop when I graduate, or write novels." Dean Ackerman suggested, "Toss a coin, my boy. Heads or tails?"

New Castle High Announces 1949 Football Schedule Today

Eight Home Games, Two Away Approved

Robert M. Mills, faculty manager of athletics at New Castle High school today announced the completion of the 1949 football schedule for the "Red Hurricanes" the defending champions of the Class AA WPIAL.

The schedule one of the most attractive in years, calls for eight home games and two away. The New Castle team will play five Class AA conference games—Sharon, Farrell, Aliquippa, Washington and Har-Brack. All games on the 1949 card are night games.

Final Approval Given

Final approval of the schedule was given by the New Castle School Board at its meeting last evening.

There are four teams on the card that were not on the 1948 schedule: Erie Tech, Carrick, Erie Academy and John Adams of Cleveland.

Missing from the 1948 schedule are Youngstown East, Mt. Lebanon, Butler and Erie East.

The football fans can look forward to many fine games at the newly enlarged stadium next fall. Already fans are talking football.

Expect Record Sale

No doubt there will be a heavy season ticket sale again this year. The season ticket sales last year set a new local all-time high. The new fine steel bleachers are an incentive for fans to buy tickets. There are seats for close to 14,000 at the stadium at the present time.

The latter part of August Phil Brindenbaugh will take his boys to the Y camp for conditioning. The first game is Friday night, September 9, bringing Erie Tech here.

Westminster Defeats W. & J. In Thriller 47 To 44

Mike Cannavino Watches Mongiello Sign Contract

This scene was enacted recently in the office of City Councilman Mike Cannavino, of Erie (right), as the newly acquired playing-manager Billy Mongiello (left), of the New Castle baseball club, affixed his signature to a contract for the 1949 season.

No salary terms were divulged, but it is understood that the popular former 1948 manager of the Uniontown Coal Barons, is perfectly satisfied with his "take home pay".

Confer In Washington

Incidentally Cannavino, general manager of the New Castle club, and Mongiello flew from Erie to Washington Wednesday for a conference with Oscar Bluge, Washington Senators farm director relative to plans for sending the New Castle club some player help this summer, under the new working agreement.

Cannavino and Mongiello while in the east will interview several fine looking prospects in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York City. Mongiello former bat boy for the New York Yankees has quite a few connections with ball players in the Metropolis.

Mongiello is expected in New Castle shortly to set up permanent headquarters.

Boxing Promoters Are Being Warned

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 17.—(INS)—Abe J. Greene, state athletic commissioner, today warned boxing promoters not to kill the goose that laid the golden egg by jacking up admission prices to a fight.

If the fans turn out for good attractions, and even sell out the house," Greene told promoters, "that is no signal to boost prices and thus scare the fans away.

Fans Are Loyal

"On the contrary the fact that a show has turned them away is an evidence that the fans liked the attraction and they liked the price they had to pay for admission. To raise the prices for a return bout it to penalize the fans for their enthusiasm. That's neither sporting nor good business."

"Promoters don't refund money for cards that may be unsatisfactory, whether through their own fault or for some other reason. They shouldn't, therefore, expect any other bonus for good cards except good attendance."

Slippery Rock Swimmers Win

Slippery Rock State Teachers College defeated the Westminster swimmers 38 to 28 at the Titans pool Wednesday. This was the second loss for the Titans in three starts. Pitt overpowered them 46 to 20 last Saturday.

Charles Pitcher of Pikesville, Md., scored 9 3-4 points for the Titans, Breaststroke Fred Cassett of Sarasota, Fla., scored 5, and Capt. Bill Wallace of New Castle won the first leg of the 440 yard free style meet.

FREEZE WORKS

W. & J. trailed by 45 to 43 with two minutes left in the game. The Titans set up a very effective system of freezing the ball and maintained possession for the rest of the game except when fouls were detected by the officials.

Farm Frolic Is Theme Of Gay, Colorful Dinner-Party Of Lawrence Co. Group

Guest night at the Lawrence County Dental society was thoroughly enjoyed Tuesday evening in the form of a "farm frolic" held in the East New Castle grange. Wives of the members and other guests were invited.

At 6:30 o'clock the group was served a full course steak dinner with all the trimmings. The valentine motif predominated, and miniature egg baskets marked each place. The ladies' baskets contained a linen handkerchief, a remembrance of the occasion.

Afterwards an entertaining program was presented by De La Cole, Gaines and other types of diversions were featured with Dr. T. J. McFate Sr. in charge. Refreshments were also served later.

Dr. R. H. Gilmore and Dr. T. J. McFate Jr. were in charge of making arrangements for the "farm frolic."

Unemployment Is Huge Problem In Europe Area

President Truman Says Two And Half Million Must Emigrate To Get Jobs

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—(INS)—President Truman declared recently that approximately one and a half million workers will have to leave Europe, if they are to find jobs.

The president said that unemployment in Europe is such a problem that the emigration of workers from the continent to overseas areas would be an "essential solution."

He urged the various governments concerned to take effective steps toward this end in an effort to reduce Europe's labor surplus.

Unemployment Bad

In a report to Congress on the operations of the Economic Cooperation administration, Mr. Truman said unemployment is particularly bad in Italy and Greece and added that western Germany and Belgium also have the same trouble. The president declared: "A recent survey conducted among European governments indicates that the total number of European workers available for emigration exceeds 2,500,000.

"Only a small portion of this group can be absorbed within continental Europe, making large overseas emigration an essential solution to the problem."

At the same time, the chief executive said this country's aid program to China has made a "vital contribution" in several sectors of the Chinese economy. But, he said, the 275 million dollars is not of sufficient magnitude to stem the tide of economic deterioration.

The president said that America can aid to China must never be a substitute, but rather be a supplement "to efforts by the Chinese government to increase production and improve the supply situation."

He frankly admitted that the Chinese Civil War had "sapped the country's strength and hampered efforts to restore essential services, increase production and revive China's export trade."

Europe Makes Progress

Mr. Truman reported that generally during the first six months of ECA operation Europe has made industrial and agricultural progress while inflation, still a handicap, has subsided somewhat in all countries except France, Italy and Greece.

The president also said that "the Communist propaganda drive is powerful, constant, and well-backed with talent and money." But he added that "there are signs that the anti-recovery efforts of the Communists, including their propaganda campaign, have not come up to their expectations."

In discussing Europe's labor problems, Mr. Truman said that 10 per cent of the Italian labor force or two million persons and one-third of the population of Greece is unemployed. He declared:

"In order to achieve greater productivity, it is necessary not only to make available tools and materials for production, but also to employ the total labor force more fully and productively."

"There is need for a re-direction of workers to more essential industries in most of the countries. In some, the nation's own labor supply needs to be supplemented by foreign workers."

Local YW Group At Conference

A number of local YWCA leaders were in Pittsburgh today to attend the discussion on Convention issues held in the Chatham Street YWCA at 7:30 Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. Glenn Berry, Mrs. J. Walker Valentine, Miss Blanche Best, national administrative affairs secretary who has been in New Castle for three days. Mrs. John Elliott, Mrs. C. M. England and Miss Dorothy Stewart, made up the local group.

Miss Best is regional adviser in the field of administration, and is covering the eastern area right now to lead discussions on convention issues and to promote interest in the National Convention to be held in San Francisco March 7 to 14.

Judge John G. Lamoree handed down a decision which may be far-reaching.

This was a case where appeal was taken from the decision of Alderman James C. Brier fining Mr. Owen, an itinerant photographer under the provision of City Ordinance No. 4313, adopted in 1937 and amended by Ordinance No. 4930 in 1947, regulating the licensing of transients and providing for the regulating of the manner in which they may do business here furnishing or bond, furnishing finger prints, etc.

Mr. Owen, a photographer residing in the State of Ohio, it appears, came here with a pony, camera and films and proceeded to take pictures of children astride the aforementioned pony on July 20, 1948. No funds were solicited and no money passed hands. The person whose picture was taken was given a card, stating that the photograph was taken by the Linwood Studios, 7510 Linwood Avenue, Cleveland, O., and stating that he would call in a few days with proofs. In the event the subject desired to purchase finished pictures, an order would be taken. This it seems was done and the purchasers made a small deposit to cover the cost of development, the balance for the pictures was to be paid for on delivery.

Mr. Owen did not register, nor have his finger prints taken, nor did he post bond in the sum required by the ordinance. He was arrested and fined.

The defendant contended that the law was discriminatory and contrary to the constitution of the United States as well as the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He was also arrested for the same offense in Erie for a violation of an Erie ordinance similar to the New Castle ordinance, the chief difference being that the Erie ordinance imposed a license tax only.

In the opinion handed down by Judge Lamoree, the judge stated that the defendant is within the provisions of the Federal constitution and that the city ordinance cannot be invoked against him.

The judgement, the court concluded, is therefore reversed, the defendant is found not guilty and the fine and cost, if paid, are directed to be refunded to the defendant, the costs to be placed on the City of New Castle.

Objections to increasing the budget and raising the taxes was made by Mr. Travers on the grounds that it wasn't necessary, and he voted against the proposal.

However, among the items which are being anticipated are the painting of the court house, which according to a painting contractor would cost around $13,000. Next year the court house will be 100 years old. If some observance of the fact is made it might be necessary to have the old building look spruce and trim for the occasion. So this event has been provided for.

Hospital care of indigent persons has grown more costly, along with all other things, which Commissioners Bush and Gilmore pointed out, is costing the county more money. Last year's hospital bill amounted to around $30,000, they state.

At one time the commissioners had a reserve fund of around $400,000 on hand, which has gradually been depleted until at the first of the year it only amounted to $170,000. This, Commissioners Bush and Gilmore contend, is absolutely necessary to run the business of the county until the new taxes come in next year and that if a couple of long-drawn out murder cases should develop, jumping court costs, there would be no money on hand to pay for them.

RENOVATE COURT ROOM

Work of renovating Court Room One is being completed and in a few days the old place will look a lot more cheerful. New paper of a light color has been applied and the places where the plaster fell off has been repaired. The woodwork is also being painted and by next week this job will be completed.

VISIT MERCER HOME

Members of the Lawrence County Board of County Commissioners, along with Controller Andrew M. Dodds, visited the Mercer County Home and Mercer Court House to find out how affairs of that county are being operated before finally adopting their budget for the coming year.

Some matters which are handled in an entirely different manner in Mercer county were found which will help the commissioners in some of their future operations and will likely result in costs here being cut.

CITY LAW HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL

In the case of the City of New Castle and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania vs Clyde D. Owen,

New Castle Chapter of the National Council of Jewish Women held the annual brotherhood meeting at Temple Israel Tuesday evening, with members of women's clubs of this district as invited guests.

The meeting was opened by the flag salute and prayer by Mrs. Lules Lipschutz. Mrs. Alec Samuels presided and gave a brief resume of the Council's work.

Speaker for this meeting was J. C. Cavill, president of the New Castle chapter of United World Federalists and chairman of their political action committee. He is also rated as a personnel manager by the United States Employment Service and has been appointed for foreign service. Mr. Cavill gave a talk on timely events and the main topics he stressed included civil rights, and the S.E.P.C. He spoke on the anti-lynch law, the poll tax and self government. He also dwelt upon the subjects of loyalty tests, dismissal of disloyal employees and the right of equality of opportunity and discrimination in education and phases of public accommodation.

A program of folk music was presented and thoroughly enjoyed. Rev. Henry J. Hayden sang American folk songs. David Reese sang Welsh folk songs and Miss Angel Esposito sang Italian folk songs.

Hostesses for this meeting were Mrs. Lawrence Perciman, chairman. Mrs. Julius Markley, co-chairman and their committee.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

Great Britain's determination never again to place her whole nation at the mercy of the few whom Winston Churchill immortalized years ago was stressed today in the military clauses of her budget for 1949-50.

The budget of total estimated expenditure and revenue will not be ready until April.

When it comes there will be cries of anguish for Britain's treasury still has much to do before it achieves the balance required for real recovery and expenditures called for mount up to almost 12 billions of dollars.

Sugar-Coats Bitter Pill

But the Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps sugar-coated the bitter pill to come by a generous appropriation for the Royal Air Force—the arm of Island defense and offense that many Britons feared might be neglected in reconstruction of the navy, maintenance of army personnel and scientific exploration.

Figures presently available show that the air force for the next fiscal year will receive $829,500,000—an amount small perhaps in comparison with United States and Soviet expenditures but very considerable nonetheless in comparison with Britain's reserves.

Most important is the fact that this is a sizeable increase over last year, when the air arm received only $692,000,000.

Churchill lost no time in branding this allegedly niggardly figure not only as suicidal neglect of England's needs but as an outright offense to members of the air force who carried in their memories or imagination the full picture of what had been done in 1940 and 1941.

Story of R.A.F. 'Finest Hour'

The wartime prime minister in his memoirs has recreated for the new generation and those of the old with short-lived memories the unforgettable story of the R.A.F.'s "finest hour." He has merely put down into print for future generations a saga of courage against seemingly insurmountable odds that made it possible for the tiny R.A.F., with its small squadrons of modern planes, to blast the Nazi air force out of the skies at Dunkirk and later in the battle of Britain itself.

As forward-looking in armaments as any nation, England has devoted much time and attention in recent months to all the new and still fantastic developments of warfare.

Rocket guns and planes, super-sonic missiles, self-guided instruments of destruction and all the enormous and highly expensive scientific development are search that accompany every foot of progress in such fields have been discussed and developed by the utmost.

Put Point Across

Yet when the time came for the final drafting of facts and figures headed experts of the air ministry obviously put across their salient point.

P.T.A. HAS WORTHY OBJECTIVE

Fifty two years ago, February 17, 1897, The National Congress of Parents and Teachers was founded in Washington, D. C., by Alice McLeach Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst. It is known locally everywhere as the Parent-Teacher Association (PTA).

Mrs. Birney had the dream and stated the ideals and objectives of the organization. Mrs. Hearst mother of William Randolph Hearst, generously backed those ideals with her purse, financing the first meeting of representative leaders among the parents and educators from throughout the nation.

As developed over the years, the present objectives of PTA are:

To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community.

To raise the standards of home life.

To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.

To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child.

To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

These ideals are ever held before the members of each local PTA through its district, state and national conventions led by those with long experience in parent-teacher work; and by the literature made available by the state and national bodies.

Official Magazine

The National Parent-Teacher is the official magazine of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. It is a very attractive, high-grade publication and is non-profit, of course. Practically every mother and teacher and school administrator in the United States could afford it, as its subscription price is only $1 a year. Address: 600 South Michigan Boulevard, Chicago, Ill.

Obviously, it is subsidized by the national organization, for its publication cost must be several times its subscription price.

In it are up-to-date articles of authority on child development, family life, home-school relationship and child welfare in general.

The total membership of all the PTAs in the United States today is over 5,000,000. This number includes only those members of PTAs which are official units of the state and national body. There are some local PTAs which call themselves by this name but are orphans and don't need to belong to the family whose name they carry. Although these orphan units often do a fine local service, they don't fit in with the organization and have been out on the highways lately . . . these nice clear warm days are sure nice for a little traveling around . . . and the traffic seems rather heavy . . . that's not what we have reference to right now . . . even though this has not been a winter of much snow and ice, many of the highways are in rather poor shape . . . chuck holes appear here and there . . . so it doesn't seem to take ice and snow to cause roads to deteriorate . . . the road repair crew saved on ashes but they will just be as busy as ever filling up the chuck holes come good warm sunny weather.

There is no reason particularly to mention this at this time but since we are thinking about roads, winter and ashes we would like to put the local street department on the back . . . This conclusion has been gathered from conversation with many motorists . . . motorists who travel from town to town during all kinds of weather . . . Our local street department has it all over other street departments in like size towns and even over the street departments in metropolitan cities when it comes to keeping icy streets ashed and in safe condition for winter driving . . . nice work men, may you continue to keep City of New Castle leading the list.

Rex . . . City electrician . . . it's a difficult job to keep track of all traffic lights we have . . . but there are several that need attention . . . lights are not burning in all directions on some lights . . . makes it confusing for some motorists . . . some motorists seem to have trouble seeing traffic lights even when they are in perfect working order.

Consistently . . . to the lads who are plotting the future up on the hill . . . don't know what you are going to do about the parking situation on big nights of entertainment . . . but something will have to be done. Last Friday evening it was almost impossible to get around on streets near the Big Building . . . Fire trucks would have been at a definite disadvantage . . . and some residents were trapped in their own drives by unthinking motorists. This is all part of the traffic problem that is growing day by day in our modern way of life.

We often wonder who invented that big one about "If you are not satisfied with your purchase your money will be CHEERFULLY refunded."

Some . . . they will fill Foster against any attempts to stop filibustering—so that's that.

"Kansas City, Here We Come!"

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

This simply was the thesis that no matter how far scientific progress may go in the next year or five years or decade or half a century, England still has within living memory the days when it was within a hair's-breadth of destruction.

True enough, guided missiles played an important part in that near-victory for the Nazis.

Yet it was not guided defense that wrecked the mechanical pre-invasion air attacks. It was rather the superior airplane, the superior courage of individual pilots and the ingenuity born of impending disaster that transformed seeming defeat into overwhelming victory.

Britain's new budget is interesting on a variety of scores. Naval estimates have been raised and army expenditures reduced but slightly—proof again that the best military minds of Britain feel that most Britons feared might be neglected in reconstruction of the navy, maintenance of army personnel and scientific exploration.

Figures presently available show that the air force for the next fiscal year will receive $829,500,000—an amount small perhaps in comparison with United States and Soviet expenditures but very considerable nonetheless in comparison with Britain's reserves.

Most important is the fact that this is a sizeable increase over last year, when the air arm received only $692,000,000.

Churchill lost no time in branding this allegedly niggardly figure not only as suicidal neglect of England's needs but as an outright offense to members of the air force who carried in their memories or imagination the full picture of what had been done in 1940 and 1941.

Story of R.A.F. 'Finest Hour'

The wartime prime minister in his memoirs has recreated for the new generation and those of the old with short-lived memories the unforgettable story of the R.A.F.'s "finest hour."

How could you have missed it?

Wasn't it, as the Rome newspapers called it, the "Wedding of the Century?"

Didn't it prove that the hobbyists of Italy can be just as silly as the hobbyists of New York, Fort Worth, Philadelphia and Hollywood?

Didn't the press agents and the photographers work overtime.

Well, why not?

Why not have a little whoopee among all that misery in Europe?

Why not let two nice people have their short fling in the light of their little taste of fame and glory?

But here is another story of fame and glory.

May it never happen to Linda and Tyrone.

May they never share the fate of Frankie Bailey, once the toast of Broadway, once just as popular, just as famous as those two newly-weds are today.

But the prospect is that the final bill may be really satisfactory to no one and especially not to organized labor. Granted that organized labor was at fault at the outset in trying to make the Senate jump through the labor hoop like an obedient trained seal, this will be a healthy situation. Out of it could come strikes and widespread labor unrest.

The chief obstacles to agreement are the closed-shop provision and the issue of whether the federal courts shall have the power through injunction to stop strikes that threaten the national welfare.

On these two points most of the heat is generated.

Reasonable Proposal

From Joseph Kovner, a special ist in labor law, comes what seems to be a reasonable proposal to bridge the dissension over these two points. He suggests that a commission of experts be appoint ed now by Congress to study and make recommendations within six months on the main points of dispute.

The commission would consider the closed shop and other forms of compulsory union membership to determine what regulations, if any, should be included in law to insure the rights of the individual worker. It would also study con ditions to be applied when strikes seem about to endanger the safety or health of the nation.

During the six months the ex perts could go into every phase of these touchy issues and with par ticular reference to the actual

practices and habits of manage ment and labor. Their recom mendations would carry much weight with Congress.

ticular reference to the actual

Such a commission would not necessarily consist of experts al ready tagged as on the side of either management or labor. In universities and research institu tions an enormous amount of more or less objective study has gone into labor-management relation.

Thus Mr. Kovner, formerly assist

City School Teachers Ask Salary Raise

Grace Dudson, president of the local branch of the P. E. P. A. last night presented to the school board, at their meeting in North Street school, a request for salary increases. No action was taken by the board.

The letter she presented follows:

We recommend an increase of $35 a month for all teachers, principals, vice-principals, supervisors, and the superintendent of schools. The state mandate would be included in this amount.

The New Castle branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association endorses the request for salary adjustments made at the last board meeting by Miss Helen Hawxell and recommends also that this action be retroactive to September 1.

In line with Gov. Duff's recommendations that more financial responsibility be assumed by local districts, our association urges the New Castle Board of Education to raise the maximum levels as follows:

Masters' degrees, $4,000.
College degrees, $3,900.
Standard certificates, $3,600.

Major plans are being made by a steering committee which is composed of chairmen of the various committees. Members are:

Ralph Watson, program, general chairman; Arthur Dunn, history; Russell Williams, improvements; Mrs. C. W. Beerbower, entertainment; Rev. Rowland White, publicity; Roy V. Moose, finances.

Large Crowd Out For Dollar Day

Bright and early this morning, with a good measure of splendid weather from off weather man himself, Dollar Day arrived in New Castle, attracting one of the largest shopping crowds to date.

And of course there were 52 local merchants who made possible your participation in this first Dollar Day of the year.

For a short while around 10:45 o'clock Wednesday night it seemed as though the city would receive a real blizzard. The wind attained tremendous proportions and snow fell at the same time, making vision almost nil for a few short minutes. The situation cleared up in short order with only a little snow left on the ground.

"Now that people are talking about antiques, especially sewing machines, I have one that I am using now to do my sewing. My mother got it, the year the First Baptist church was dedicated in 1890. It is still in good shape, after all these years of use," Sarah Jones, County Line street.

AMERICAN TROOPS

WOULD LEAVE JAPAN

Europe had been conquered. Even those who feel we could win at that believe it would take 15 to 30 years.

"If we hold western Europe, we would be able to mount strategic air attacks from Italy, Greece and southern France."

Royall went on to say that if Russia were the enemy in such a war, American air strength could be brought to bear from western Europe against the main bulk of Soviet industry. On the other hand, he said, air attacks from Japan could reach only a small part of Soviet industrial strength.

Could Protect Itself

The army secretary said that American naval strength is so much greater than anything the Russians could have for at least 25 years that the U. S. could protect itself in the Pacific even if America's northern land bases were lost.

With regard to China, Royall said:

"I am not worried about China as I don't believe Russia will be able to make effective use of Communist China and may have trouble. For one thing, Russia is unable to supply China with the things she needs, and China—Communist or not—has to trade with Japan and other areas of the world."

Then, discussing what the United States might do if it did "pull out" of Japan, Royall stated:

CAN KEEP JAPAN ANTI-RED

"If we pull out from Japan militarily, we still can shave dollars in to keep Japan anti-Communist and on our side. I feel we should do more to sell the Japanese on what we are doing here, however, to counter Communist propaganda. This must be done throughout the world, not only in Japan."

At the outset, Royall was asked by the newsmen to "give us your ideas" about the American military position in Japan and the Far East. It was this question which prompted most of his remarks.

He prefaced his analysis with a statement to the effect that he did not feel the United States was under any "obligation" to defend Japan.

At one point, Royall said it might have a poor effect on Japan, Australia and the Philippines if the U. S. took its forces out of Japan. "So," he added, "there's a political reason for us to remain."

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(INS)—Dr. Milton Helpern, deputy chief medical examiner, says that a cerebral hemorrhage caused the death of Patricia Ryan, 27-year-old radio actress.

SIX OF THE OLD FLOODLIGHTS WHICH WERE IN USE AT TAGGART STADIUM WILL BE ERECTED AT THE YMCA TRAINING CAMP.

It was pointed out that some night practice could be held to escape the heat of day time.

Dr. Jackson advocated emblems for junior varsity football players. The move was adopted upon motion of Director Woolcock.

Dr. Jackson also stated that it is hoped by the athletic committee to have Captain Tom Hamilton, former Navy coach, now Pitt athletic director, as the principal speaker at the high school athletic banquet.
